What's Happening?

Florida continues road action Sunday when it is at Oklahoma State. Match time is set for 1 p.m. ET at Cowgirl Soccer Complex. The Gators' Friday night match at No. 1 Florida State was cancelled due to impact Hurricane Hermine made in the north Florida region.

Florida split its two overtime matches in the Golden State last weekend. The weekend opened with a 1-0 OT loss at Stanford. On Sunday, the Gators took a 4-3 OT win at No. 15 UCLA. Savannah Jordan played a role in each Gator goal scored in each period. Both of her goals in regulation were off headers, scoring the first goal of the match and then tying at 3-all in the 73rd minute. In overtime, Jordan took the pass from Gabby Seiler and drove through the Bruin half. Her cross in the box deflected off a Bruin defender, scoring in the 96th minute. Sarah Troccoli also scored in the first half.

Today's match puts Florida past the midway point of a five-match road stretch for the Gators. Before the UF-FSU cancellation, the road stretch was to be six matches, equaling the longest stretch in the program's history (also six straight road matches in 1999, 2002, 2014). During this now five-match road swing, the Gators will travel more than 11,400 miles.

The Gators and Cowgirls meet for the fourth consecutive season. In the 2015 meeting in Gainesville, Oklahoma State scored in the third minute but the first goals of the season from Brooke Sharp and Liz Slattery gave the Gators a 2-1 halftime lead. The Cowgirls tied the match in the 66th minute, pushing Florida to overtime. Sharp jumped on a deflected ball loose in the box to score the winner off a low, right-footed shot with just 19 second remaining in the first OT to give UF the 3-2 win. Sunday's match is a homecoming for Gators redshirt junior defender Kristen Cardano, who attending Jenks High School in Tulsa, Okla., which is 65 miles east of Stillwater.

Already this season, Jordan has moved to the top three on two UF career charts. Her 69 goals moved her past Gator Great Danielle Fotopoulos to third on Florida's career goal chart. She now is tied for third with Melissa Pini with 160 career points.

The 2016 Gator team is made up of 39 players, making it the largest team in the program's 22-year history (previous high: 37 in 2010). Among the roster are 16 newcomers, including 13 freshmen, which is the program's fourth largest. Florida returns eight starters from the 2015 team that swept the Southeastern Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Three on the 2016 Florida team have earned All-SEC honors. Three-time All-American forward Savannah Jordan also is a three-time All-SEC first-team selection and has twice been named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year (2013, 2015). Fellow senior Meggie Dougherty Howard was a 2015 All-SEC second team selection at midfield. In addition, redshirt junior Gabby Seiler was a 2014 All-SEC first-team selection while with Georgia. She sat out last season due to SEC transfer rules.

Florida opened the 2016 season at No. 7 on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) preseason poll. It is the 20th consecutive Florida appearance on the NSCAA preseason poll and the fourth straight top-10 listing. Florida faces five teams NSCAA preseason top 25, with four on the road – No. 1 Florida State (Sept. 2-cancelled), No. 5 Stanford (Aug. 26/1-0 OT loss), No. 22 Mississippi (Oct. 9) and No. 24 South Carolina (Oct. 16). Florida plays host to No. 12 Auburn on Sept. 22. UCLA was No. 15 when the teams met Aug. 28 (4-3 OT win).

Oklahoma State has already faced two SEC opponents, defeating preseason No. 8 Texas A&M 2-0 in an Aug. 13 exhibition and then opened the season with a 2-2 2OT tie at Georgia. Friday, OSU lost 3-2 OT to Central Florida Friday in Stillwater. Oklahoma State is picked to take fifth in the 2016 Big 12. Two Cowgirl seniors appear on the Big 12 Preseason team – forward Courtney Dike and defender Natalie Calhoun.

What's Next?

Florida continues road action Thursday, Sept. 8 when it plays Kentucky (0-2-1) in Lexington, Ky. Match time is set for 7 p.m. ET at the Wendell & Vickie Bell Soccer Complex. This match kicks off SEC Network soccer coverage for the 2016 season.

Last year, the two teams tied 1-1 2OT in Gainesville. Florida has lost in its last two trips to Lexington – 2014 (2-0) and 2012 (2-1).

The match can be heard on ESPN 95.3FM/850AM.

About the 2016 Gators

The 2016 Gator team is made up 39 players – an all-time high in the programs 22-year history. Among the 16 newcomers are 13 freshmen, which is the fourth-largest for the program. Florida returns eight starters from the 2015 team that swept the Southeastern Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Three on the 2016 Florida team have earned All-SEC honors. Three-time All-American forward Savannah Jordan is also a three-time All-SEC first-team selection and has twice been named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year (2013, 2015). Fellow senior Meggie Dougherty Howard was a 2015 All-SEC second team selection at midfield. In addition, redshirt junior Gabby Seiler was a 2014 All-SEC first-team selection while with Georgia. She transferred to UF after the 2014 season and sat out last season due to SEC transfer rules.

- Fourteen of the 17 Gators who earned points in 2015 return this season. Of the 178 points generated by the 2015 Gators, graduation claimed three players who contributed 24 points and three goals - Christen Westphal (3 goals, 13 assists – 19 points), Lauren Smith (3 a – 3 pts) and Claire Falknor (1 a – 1 pt).
- Jordan has led not only the Gators in goals and points the last three years, she's also ranked among the SEC and NCAA leaders. In the final 2015 NCAA stats, Jordan ranked No. 2 in goals (24) and points (55). Her three-year career total of 65 goals equals Gator Great Abby Wambach's freshman, sophomore and junior total.
- Dougherty Howard shared the Washington Spirit Reserves goals lead (5) in this summer's action. The team won the 2016 Women's Premier Soccer League (WPSL) East title. Sophomore Melanie Monteagudo (FC Surge) also led her team in goals (6). Other current Gators in 2016 WPSL action this summer included Nelson (Washington Spirit Reserves), Seiler, Brooke Sharp and Sarah Troccoli (Florida SOL FC) and Briana Solis (Florida Krush).
- Gators were busy in the off season with various national team activities. A total of seven returning Gators were called into U.S. Age-Group National Team or tournaments since the conclusion of last season. Sophomore Gaby Rivera also was called into Mexico Under-20 National Team events.
- Three join Florida as transfers (Erika Nelson/Maryland; Parker Roberts/Kansas; Gabby Seiler/Georgia) with Nelson and Seiler competing for the Gators in 2016.

Thirteen freshmen join the Gators in 2016

The 13 freshmen make up the fourth-largest class ever for UF. It is the second consecutive year Florida has brought in a large class, as the 2015 class of 15 was the third largest in the program's history.

- Sammie Betters, Julia Lester and current sophomore Gator goalkeeper Kaylan Marckese teamed up on the Tampa Bay United 97 Premier to win the 2015 US Youth Soccer National U-17 Championship in Tulsa, Okla., last summer. Lester joined Marckese on the tournament's Best XI team.
- Tess Sapone is the 2016 Virginia Gatorade Player of the Year. Lester is a 2016 NSCAA High School All-American.
- Among the 13 freshman are a pair - Alyssa Baumbick and Susi Espinoza – who have been called into U.S. age-group national camps over their careers. Baumbick attended several U.S. Youth Team camps, including each of the four Under-19 camps held in 2015. Espinoza was part of U.S. U14 Girls National Team in 2012 and part of 2013 U.S. U15 player pool.
- All have extensive playing resumes in Elite Clubs Soccer League (ECNL), Olympic Development Program or US Youth Soccer competition.
- Two graduated from high school early to join the Gators. Hope Hyde of Dallas, Texas, and Jocelyn Nelson of Barnsdall, Okla., each finished their high school studies in December 2015, allowing them to enroll at the University of Florida for the spring 2016 semester.
- Two graduated at the top of their high school classes and are enrolled in University of Florida Honors classes - Sammie Betters and Danielle Van Liere.

Florida Picked to Win SEC

The University of Florida is picked to defend its Southeastern Conference title in the 2016 league coaches' preseason vote.

The Gators received 165 points that included 10 first-place votes, topping Texas A&M's 154 points (four first-place votes).

Florida swept SEC regular-season and tournament titles in 2015. The Gators took their 14th SEC title with an 8-2-1 record and claimed the program's 11th SEC Tournament title with a 2-1 win over Texas A&M in the final.

Three Gators have earned All-SEC honors during their careers. Three-time All-American forward Savannah Jordan is also a three-time All-SEC first-team selection and has twice been named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year (2013, 2015). Fellow senior Meggie Dougherty Howard was a 2015 All-SEC second team selection at midfield. In addition, redshirt junior Gabby Seiler was a 2014 All-SEC first-team selection while with Georgia. She sat out 2015 action due to SEC transfer rules.

SEC Player of the Week Honors

A Gator has picked up Southeastern Conference Player of the Week honors in both announcements for the 2016 season.

Senior Savannah Jordan was the Week 1 SEC Offensive Player of the Week award after opening the season with two goals and four assists. It was Jordan's seventh SEC Offensive Player of the Week honor of her career.

On Aug. 29, Kaylan Marckese was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week. In last weekend's road competition against a pair of top-15 teams, Marckese turned in 10 saves – including a career-high six at No. 3 Stanford.

Gators Appearing in Season Opener

Depth will be an asset for the 2016 Gators. In Friday's season opener, 21 players appeared, equaling the highest number in the 22-year history of Florida's program.

The last time 21 players appeared in the season opener was in 2001 and also in the program's debut match in 1995. The all-time high of 27 players appearing in the season opener came in 1996.

Three Gators on SEC Soccer Preseason Watch List

Three Gators - Meggie Dougherty Howard, Savannah Jordan and Gabby Seiler – are among the 44 players appearing on the 2016 Southeastern Conference Preseason Watch List. The SEC begins its 24th season of

All three have earned All-SEC honors during their careers. Jordan is a three-time All-SEC first team selection and also picked up the SEC Offensive Player of the Year honor in 2013 and 2015. Dougherty Howard appeared on the 2015 All-SEC second team. As a sophomore at Georgia, Seiler appeared on the 2014 All-SEC first team. She sat out the 2015 season due to SEC transfer rules.

The trio were called into U.S. Soccer Under-23 action this year, with Jordan and Dougherty Howard representing the U.S. at the 2016 Nordic Cup.

Burleigh Career Wins Total Among Nation's Best

Becky Burleigh stands among the nation's top three active coaches for wins and winning percentage.

She enters the 2016 season with a 26-year record of 455-121-37 (0.772). She stands at No. 3 in both wins (455) and winning percentage (0.772) among the NCAA Division I Active Coaches.

She is the only woman among the top five on either chart.

Smart Gators

The University of Florida soccer program posted a 3.39 grade point average for the 2014-15 academic year, earning the squad a spot in the 2015 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award. Programs with a 3.0 or better GPA are named to the annual list.

One Gator has found academic perfection. Senior Betsy Middleton has earned nothing less than an "A" throughout her academic career. She is pursuing a degree in psychology – behavioral & cognitive neuroscience.

She was joined on the 2015 CoSIDA Academic All-America second team by teammate Savannah Jordan, who also earned 2015 NSCAA Scholar All-America honors.

Gator Trio on MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List

A national-high three Gators – Meggie Dougherty Howard, Savannah Jordan and Gabby Seiler – are among the 36 Division I players on the Preseason Missouri Athletic Club (MAC) Hermann Watch List.

The MAC Hermann Trophy is the most prestigious individual award in NCAA soccer presented annually to one male and one female athlete. The winners will be announced Friday, Jan. 6, 2017, at the trophy presentation banquet at the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

All three Gators were called into U.S. Soccer Under-23 action this year

Gators Called into Youth National Team Activities

Gators were busy in the off season with various national team activities. A total of seven Gators were called into U.S. Age-Group National Team or tournaments since the conclusion of last season. Sophomore Gaby Rivera also was called into Mexico Under-20 National Team events.

Two Gators are expected to be a part of the 2016 FIFA Women's World Cup, which will be played Nov. 13-Dec. 3 in Papua New Guinea. Parker Roberts, who transferred to Florida this summer after playing her freshman season at Kansas in 2015, is expected to be a part of the U.S. roster for the event. Rivera is anticipated to be a part of the Mexico roster. Due to their national team commitments, both will sit out the 2016 collegiate seasons.

Gator Debut

Julia Lester started on the Gator backline for the Aug. 19 match versus Iowa State, marking the second consecutive year Florida's season-opening lineup included a freshman. She has been a part of the starting lineup for each of Florida's four matches this season.

The only years that the opener didn't have a freshmen starting was in 2007, 2010, 2012 and 2014.

The number I wear

It isn't a matter of luck – many of the Gators have a specific reason or story behind the jersey number they wear.

#	Player	Reason
2	Samantha Chung	Father (Mark Chung) wore No. 20 during his MLS career – No. 2 was closest number available
3	Jessie Holmes	Wore No. 3 or No. 33 through club career
8	Cassie Owens	Eight is her lucky number so any jersey # choice includes an eight
11	Brooke Sharp	Always wore #11.
13	Alyssa Howell	It is her birthday (Sept. 13)
15	Sarah Troccoli	It is her birthday (Nov. 15)
16	Liz Slattery	Previous # was 4, but sister took it so changed to #16
18	Jocelyn Nelson	Wore the number in club and high school
88	Courtney Douglas	No. 8 is her favorite #, but since it was taken, just doubled it

 James G. Pressly Stadium
 Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – The 2016 season opened for the University of Florida soccer team with a 5-2 win over Iowa State Friday evening in front of a James G. Pressly Stadium crowd of 1,293.

Gators' 2016 scoring started with a give-and-go play. Sophomore Mayra Pelayo sent the ball to Savannah Jordan, who was standing with back to goal at top of the 18-yard box. Pelayo continued her run into the box, receiving the ball back off a one-touch from Jordan. She moved deeper in the box before sending a curling 10-yard shot which scored at the upper far post corner.

Florida's second goal came shortly before halftime. Senior Betsy Middleton received the ball off a throw-in at the top of the Cyclones final defensive third. She sent the ball across to sophomore Melanie Monteagudo, located just above the far side of the 18-yard box. She took a touch, looked up and launched a left-footed 22-yard shot that just went under the crossbar to score in the 42nd minute. It was her first goal as a Gator.

Two goals in less than two minutes pushed the Gators lead out to 4-0 early in the second half. Gabby Seiler sent the ball to Jordan, who was just inside the top of the Cyclone box. She immediately touched the ball back to just above the box to find sophomore Sarah Troccoli. The 20-yard shot off Troccoli's left foot dipped under the crossbar to score in the 48th minute.

A pair of senior combined to score the next Gator goal in the 49th minute. Pelayo passed the ball to Jordan in the middle of the ISU box. Jordan took a touch toward top of the 18-yard box and then sent it to Dougherty Howard, who had moved to just above the box. Dougherty Howard took a touch toward goal before scoring on a 16-yard shot.

The Cyclones closed the lead to two after scoring twice within a 10-minute span. Senior Koree Willer scored ISU's first goal of the season at 53:58 off an assist from Mia McAleer. Then Klasey Medelberg scored off a 26-yard shot in the 63rd minute.

Jordan scored on an unassisted goal from eight yards in the 68th minute to give the Gators the final margin. That goal was No. 66 of her career, moving her into a tie for third on the Gators career goal list with Danielle Fotopoulos. She also moved up one spot to a tie for fifth with Sarah Yohe on UF's Career Points list at 153.

Worth Noting

- Pelayo also scored the Gators' first goal in the 2015 opener at UCF. She used her left foot to score her first collegiate goal in the 32nd minute off a 22-yard shot.
- Jordan has scored a goal in each of her four season-opening matches. Her career total of 66 goals is the most among the nation's current players.
- Tonight is the 12th time a Gator has recorded three or more assists in a match. Jordan is the first with three assists since Annie Speese's trio versus Florida Gulf Coast on Sept. 11, 2011.
- This is the first time since the 2001 season that Florida has recorded 30 shots in a match.
- This is the most goals for the Gators in an opening match since Florida's 5-2 win over Utah in 2001.
- Florida's starting lineup included one true freshman – Julia Lester. At least one Gator freshman has started 17 of the program's 22 season openers. Also among the starting Gators are two other newcomers. Erika Nelson transferred from Maryland and will play her redshirt senior year at UF. Gabby Seiler joined Florida in the fall of 2015 after playing her first two seasons at Georgia. She sat out the 2015 season due to Southeastern Conference transfer rules.

What the Gators Said:

On her overall impression of Florida's first match:

"It's like the perfect game for a coach because we definitely had some highlights, and we definitely have some things to work on. It's good to get that first one under our belt where we can celebrate a victory, but at the same time, we definitely have some points of emphasis to look at before Sunday." – head coach Becky Burleigh

On the diversity of Florida's offense:

"We definitely have a much more diverse offense than I've seen in a while. We have a lot of creative players in the midfield. I personally love playing with them. A lot of speed, a lot of power – it's a lot different. It gives every team a different look, so one team can't just mark one person." – senior forward Savannah Jordan

 James G. Pressly Stadium
 Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – The University of Florida used a 3-0 win Sunday over Florida Atlantic to notch the program's 200th home win.

With today's win at the James G. Pressly Stadium, the Gators now own a 200-32-12 record in home play in the program's 22-year history,

How the Gators Scored:

All the scoring of the match came in the opening half. Sophomore Melanie Monteagudo played a part in each of Florida's first two goals Sunday. She needed just 36 seconds to score after entering the match midway in the opening half. Savannah Jordan received the ball off a throw-in and her touch popped the ball to open space just above the six-yard box. Monteagudo pounced on the free ball and placed it in from eight yards in the 24th minute.

The Gators were awarded their first penalty kick of the season when Monteagudo was upended by FAU's Alex Mason. Senior Meggie Dougherty Howard successfully converted the penalty kick in the 29th minute.

Florida's final goal came with just a second left in the opening half. Jordan received the ball after making a run down the right side and she moved toward goal. FAU goalkeeper Sydney Drinkwater came out to make the stop and the two collided in the box. Drinkwater was given a red card and Jennifer Ocampo replaced her in goal. She deflected Jordan's penalty kick attempt, but Jordan put in the rebound to give UF a 3-0 halftime lead.

Worth Noting

- After this weekend's action, Jordan has moved into sole possession of third on Florida's Career Goals chart at 67. Her goal on Friday moved her into a tie for third with Gator Great Danielle Fotopoulos. Jordan's three points today (1 goal, 1 assist) now moves her into a tie with Fotopoulos for fourth on the Gators Career Points list at 156 (Jordan: 67g, 22a = 156 pts).
- All three Gator goal scorers today – Monteagudo, Dougherty Howard and Jordan - also turned in a goal in Friday's 5-2 win over Iowa State.
- Jordan's score with just one second remaining is the latest opening half goal in the program's history. The previous latest goal came at 44:58 off Nicky Kit's free kick goal at South Carolina on Oct. 29, 2010. That 1-0 win gave the Gators the 2010 Southeastern Conference title.
- For the second consecutive match, 21 players appeared in the game for Florida.
- Florida Head Coach Becky Burleigh has led the Gator program since its debut match on Sept. 2, 1995 (4-0 home win over Florida State). The Gator program is now 375-98-31 in the program's 22-year history.

What the Gators Said:

On her overall thoughts on today's win...

"The thing that was the best for us was the second half. We wanted to have no looks from them whatsoever, no offensive presence from them. And I think we accomplished that. That's a real positive for us because it was a goal we set at halftime." - head coach Becky Burleigh

On pressing being a part of the game plan today...

"I'd like to press a little bit more, but it's tough on Sunday afternoons. This weather is tough. We used quite a few players today, but Sunday's are tough to press. That might be more of a nighttime activity." - head coach Becky Burleigh

On Florida's set pieces today...

"I thought FAU did a good job of keeping us out of the net a few times. The keeper came up with some good saves. Some of the posts and crossbars came up with some good saves too. But that's part of the game. Overall, it was a good opening weekend for us." – head coach Becky Burleigh

On the upcoming six matches away from home...

"It's a tough travel schedule because we really only have two days of practice. We'll be off tomorrow, train Tuesday in the morning; we travel Wednesday, which is going to be a tough day. It's about recovering our bodies from the weekend, getting a couple things ironed out, then playing on Friday." – head coach Becky Burleigh

No. 6 Florida No. 3 Stanford

1 OT

PALO ALTO, Calif. – The University of Florida soccer team lost 1-0 in overtime Friday evening in front of 1,240 fans at Laird Q. Cagan Stadium.

It was the third consecutive meeting between the two teams that went to overtime, with the Cardinal taking two wins and one match ending in a tie.

How the Match Unfolded:

Midfield play was prevalent Friday, as each team looked for an opening to reach their opponent's defensive third. Gator sophomore Kaylan Marckese made some key saves Friday, including five in the second half.

One of the Gators best opportunities came in the 76th minute when sophomore Melanie Monteagudo brought the ball down the left side. Her endline cross tried to find Savannah Jordan, who was making a near post run. Stanford goalkeeper Jane Campbell came out but couldn't gather the ball in and it was free just above the six-yard box. Senior Meggie Dougherty Howard was just a fraction away from getting to loose ball.

On the game-winning goal, a lofted ball was sent to the top of the Gators' box. SU's Kyra Carusa headed it forward to Jordan DiBiasi, who was located just above the six-yard box. A sliding Marckese stopped that shot but DiBiasi's right footed shot on the deflection scored at the far corner in the 96th minute.

Worth Noting

- These two teams have met three times at Cagan Stadium since the 2014 season. All three matches have gone to overtime, with the Cardinal taking the win twice. The 2014 NCAA Quarterfinal meeting ended in a 2-2 double overtime tie, but Stanford advanced to the NCAA College Cup on penalty kicks.
- Six saves equals Marckese's collegiate best. She also turned in six saves in the 2015 regular-season home finale versus Arkansas.
- Florida will face the preseason No. 1 team on two different polls in consecutive Friday road action. Stanford topped Top Drawer Soccer's preseason poll and continues to hold that spot on the Aug. 22 release. After Florida returns from its two-match California road trip, it will travel to Tallahassee to face Florida State. The Seminoles are No. 1 on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) rankings.

Records:

Florida: 2-1-0, 0-0 SEC

Stanford: 3-0-0, 0-0 Pac-12

What the Gators Said:

On her overall thoughts on today's match...

"I'm really proud of the way we played. I think we learned a lot about ourselves tonight. This is a great opportunity for us to be put under some pressure and see what we could do under that pressure. We are going to learn a lot from this – I'm really excited that we had this game.

"From an effort perspective, it was terrific energy around our team, and the game and the bench. Everything was awesome. Stanford did a good job to finish an opportunity off a set piece to end the game. But overall, win or lose, this game doesn't define us. It is more about what we take from it." - head coach Becky Burleigh

Preseason Conference Votes:

Florida swept the 2015 SEC regular-season titles. Stanford won the 2015 Pac-12 Conference title.

Florida – The Gators are picked to win the 2016 Southeastern Conference title.

SU – The Cardinal are picked to win the 2016 Pac-12 Conference title.

No. 6 Florida No. 15 UCLA

Aug. 28, 2016

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – A goal in the 96th minute put a successful finish on the University of Florida soccer team's California trip Sunday. That goal gave the Gators a 4-3 overtime win at UCLA in front of 1,018 fans at Marshall Field at Drake Stadium.

The Gators also went to overtime Friday at No. 3 Stanford, losing 1-0 when the Cardinal scored – also in the 96th minute.

How the Match Unfolded:

Gator senior All-American Savannah Jordan played a role in goals scored in each period Sunday – first, second and overtime.

The decisive goal started when Gabby Seiler sent a ball from the Gator half to Jordan's feet just inside the Bruin half. Jordan ran down along the right sideline, bypassing one defender and then evading another as she moved into the box. Jordan attempted a square ball to Sarah Troccoli who was making a run through the middle of the UCLA box. That pass deflected off a Bruin defender into goal to end the match.

Jordan scored the first goal early in the match. Freshman Julie Lester's cross from deep in the Bruins defensive third was headed in by Jordan in the third minute. She also scored on a diving header in the 73rd minute. Senior defender Erika Nelson sent a 35-yard ball into the box, which Jordan placed in with her head.

The Bruins also scored early Sunday. Darian Jenkins' high cross was scored at the lower corner off Annie Alvarado's diving header in the fifth minute.

Sarah Troccoli's goal in the 17th minute started with a free kick. Meggie Dougherty sent the ball to just above the six-yard box where it deflected off Gabby Seiler and then Troccoli placed it in.

Two scores by Jessie Fleming within a four-minute span put the Bruins in the lead. Fleming headed in a cross from Zoey Garalski in the 65th minute. Shortly later, the Bruins were awarded a penalty kick and Fleming placed it in to give UCLA a 3-2 lead at 68:35.

Early in the second half, the Bruins looked to knot the score when they were awarded a penalty kick in the 52nd minute. Gator goalkeeper Kaylan Marckese dived to her right and made the stop on Lauren Kaskie's attempt.

Worth Noting

- Jordan's two goals Sunday gives her four in 2016. With the Sunday goals, Jordan moves into a tie for third with Melissa Pini (1995-98) at 160 on Florida's Career Point chart. She is third on Florida's Career Goals chart at 69.
- Troccoli's goal was her second of 2016. Two defenders recorded their first assist as a Gator Sunday. Lester received the assist on Jordan's first goal and Nelson assisted on Jordan's second goal.
- The Bruins received two penalty kicks Sunday. The first came in the 52nd minute. Florida goalkeeper dived to her right and made the stop on Lauren Kaskie's attempt.
- This was the fourth consecutive overtime match for Florida when it visited the Golden State. The other three all came at Stanford – 1-0 OT loss (2014), 2-2 2OT tie (2014-NCAA Quarterfinal – SU advanced on penalty kicks) and 1-0 OT loss (2016).
- Today's match is the middle of three consecutive contests versus top-15 teams. Florida was at No. 3 Stanford Friday (1-0 OT loss), No. 15 UCLA today (4-2 OT win) and at No. 1 Florida State on Sept. 2.

Records:

Florida: 3-1-0, 0-0 SEC

UCLA: 2-1-0, 0-0 Pac-12

What the Gators Said:

On her overall thoughts on today's match...

"I thought we really came out after them at the beginning and that is what we wanted. They equalized and then we scored. It was kind of a back and forth game for a while. I thought it showed a lot of resilience on our part to get the goal in overtime. It is a long trip, tough place to play and UCLA is a really good team. We are excited to get the "W" and head back home." - head coach Becky Burleigh
