CITI Program Training

Important: Faculty (with some exceptions), staff, and students engaged in human subjects research must complete either the biomedical or social-behavioral human research course through the online Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI), depending upon which is most germane to the research, pass the quizzes, and attach the completion certificate to the eprotocol application before engaging in any human subjects research activities.

1) Go to https://www.citiprogram.org (Site users will need to have Internet Explorer 8 or later, or use a current version of Chrome, Firefox, or Safari) Click on 'Click here to register'

2) Complete Registration Steps 1-7 (at minimum, complete questions with asterisks). Be sure to select University of California, Berkeley for Participating Institutions. Then click Submit.

3) Question 1: Will you be engaged in human subjects research?
Select Group 1: Biomedical Research Investigators and Key Personnel; OR, Group 2: Social and Behavioral Research Investigators and Key Personnel

* The other groups/modules do not satisfy the education requirement for students.

4) Question 2: Will you be using vertebrate animals in research or teaching?

SKIP!

Not applicable for Human Subjects Research. Do not check off any boxes.

5) Question 3: Are you supported by NSF, USDA/NFIA or NIH Funding? (Responsible Conduct of Research)

Select Not at this time, Thank you.
