RE: UCEAP Faculty Opportunities (International) and Academic Integration Grants

The mission of the University of California Education Abroad Program is to equip UC students with the knowledge, understanding, and skills for work and life in a globally interdependent and culturally diverse world. Since 1962, the University of California Education Abroad Program (UCEAP) has served as the UC systemwide international exchange program. Serving all UC campuses, UCEAP continues its support of the University of California's mission through academic instruction and exchange relationships around the world. UCEAP is now accepting UC faculty applications for the following two-year Faculty Director (formerly referred to as Study Center Director) and short-term Visiting Professor appointments. The application deadline is November 20, 2015.

UCEAP Grants for Academic Integration of Study Abroad - Call for Proposals

UCEAP has allocated $50,000 for academic departments to integrate study abroad programs and coursework into their curricula. Our goal is to fund ten teams of faculty and staff at $5,000 each to work over the next year to make studying abroad accessible for undergraduate students. Please find the Call for Proposal as well as an application form here. We invite you to apply, and to share this with your departmental contacts and any other faculty and staff whom you think may be interested. We welcome applications from all academic disciplines.

The deadline for submission is Wednesday, December 2, 2015. Completed applications and questions about the grants can be sent to UCEAP Associate Dean Hsiu-Zu Ho and Academic Data Coordinator Katie van Meeuwen at ALIntegration@eap.ucop.edu.

Visiting Opportunities with Partner Universities - Courtesy postings with application instructions will appear on UCEAP's website as they become available:

- Yonsei University's International Summer School \(YISS\) in Seoul, Korea, seeks UC faculty to teach undergraduate courses, with preferred fields listed in the upcoming call for applications. The application period is mid-November to late December.
- Fudan University's International Summer School in Shanghai, China, seeks UC faculty to teach undergraduate courses on topics related to China studies or of comparative studies in all disciplines. The application period will begin in November.
