Section B. Marital and Tax Dependency Information. Check the appropriate boxes and attached required documentation.
	My child is unmarried.
	I do not claim my child as my tax dependent because he/she was employed for all or a portion of 2015 and files his/her own taxes. You must provide more in support than your child earned in order for your child to be eligible for Tuition Remission. You must attach a completed Affidavit worksheet (available at http://www.uc.edu/hr) and a copy of your child's Federal Tax return.
	I did not claim my child as my tax dependent for the tax year My child was not employed for any part of the 2015 tax year. I provide more than half (51%) of my child's support. You must attach a completed Affidavit worksheet (available at http://www.uc.edu/hr).
	I did not claim my child as my tax dependent for the tax year My child was employed for all or part of the 2015 tax year. You must provide more in support than your child earned in order for your child to be eligible for Tuition Remission. You must attach a completed Affidavit worksheet (page 2) and a copy of your child's Federal Tax return.
Section C. Employee/Student Verification and Signature
Furthermore, I understand that knowingly submitting false or deceptive information is considered fraud under Ohio law. If the tax return(s) and any other requested documentation fail to support the current dependent situation, my child will immediately lose his/her tuition remission benefits. I understand and agree that I will be responsible for reimbursing the University for any amount paid in reliance on these representations if the child was ineligible for such under the University rules. Submitting false information on this document may result in legal action. You must attach a copy of your child's most recent Federal Tax return and a completed Affidavit worksheet (available at http://www.uc.edu/hr).
