

Office for Postdoctoral Scholars

Part of the UCSF Graduate Division, the Office for Postdoctoral Scholars serves as a central resource and information conduit for all postdocs as well as for faculty and staff who work with postdocs at UCSF.

Activities of the Postdoc Office include

- Quarterly postdoc orientations
- Career development activities
- Staff training in relation to postdoc policies, union contract interpretation
- Advising services for individual postdocs
- Diversity programs
- Advocating for postdoc inclusion in the activities of other campus organizations
- Reviewing/granting requests for exceptions to standard policy (e.g. length of appointment, part-time appointments)
- Ensuring campus postdoc policies comply with Union contract
- Participating in the UC-wide postdoc workgroup
- Recruitment of postdocs
- Annual "Postdoc Speed Mentoring" program

Visit the Postdoc Office website at postdocs.ucsf.edu ^[1] for more information.

*/

UCSF Main Site

© 2013 The Regents of the University of California

Source URL: <http://graduate.ucsf.edu/postdocs>

Links:

[1] <http://postdocs.ucsf.edu>