

Aashika Damodar, Spring 2015 graduate. Photo by Tommy LaVergne.

Are you in demand?

CLASSROOM AND ONLINE FORMATS

Rice paralegal graduates are — we regularly get job postings from employers. In fact, many of our students find jobs before completing our program.

Our highly rated skills-based Paralegal Graduate Certificate program is taught by practicing attorneys and includes career search support. Individuals successfully completing the course will receive a Rice Certificate of Achievement.

CLASSROOM FORMAT

SECTION DATES: Mondays and Wednesdays between August 22, 2016 and January 23, 2017, 6-9 p.m.

FEE: If registering by August 1: $4,350 After August 1: $4,550

CEUs: 9.6

ONLINE FORMAT

SECTION DATES: Mondays and Wednesdays between October 3, 2016 and February 27, 2017, 6-9 p.m. Central time

FEE: If registering by September 2: $4,350

After September 2: $4,550

CEUs: 9.3

Who Should Enroll?

Rice's program is ideal for those seeking to enhance their career or start a new one in the paralegal profession. In addition, the transferable skills from this program can also be used by:

- Individuals seeking knowledge of the paralegal profession
- Students considering law school who would like a head-start on their peers
- Foreign attorneys interested in an LL.M. degree

Visit glasscock.rice.edu/paralegal to register today.