JIM BEVAN

HEAD COACH - 30TH SEASON AT RICE (11TH AS HC)

2008 Conference USA Indoor Coach of the Year
2008 Conference USA Outdoor Coach of the Year
2007 NCAA South Central Regional Cross Country Coach of the Year
2007 Conference USA Cross Country Coach of the Year
2007 Conference USA Outdoor Coach of the Year
2007 Conference USA Indoor Coach of the Year
2005 Conference USA Cross Country Coach of the Year
2002 Western Athletic Conference Cross Country Coach of the Year
1999 Western Athletic Conference Cross Country Coach of the Year
1994 Southwest Conference Cross Country Coach of the Year

Veteran cross country and track and field coach Jim Bevan enters his 30th (2015-16) season with the Rice women's track and field program and his 11th year as head coach of the Rice Owls.

Since Rice became a member of Conference USA and under Bevan's tutelage, the Owls have been one of the league's annual contenders for the team trophy and have captured team titles in cross country (2005, 2007), indoor (2007, 2008) and outdoor (2007, 2008).

The Owls were one of only two teams in the nation in 2008 to win the triple crown by winning conference titles in cross country, indoor track and field, and outdoor track and field. He also coached U.S. Olympic long jumper Funmi Jimoh in the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Under Bevan's watch Daisy Ding earned 2015 First-Team All-American honors by placing eighth in the triple jump at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. That came on the heels of earning C-USA Field Performer of the Meet honors after winning a triple jump title at the C-USA Outdoor Championships. Bevan also had a huge impact on a banner season for distance runner Cali Roper, who began the year by becoming the first Owl to win the C-USA cross country title and was named the C-USA Athlete of the Year. Roper followed that up by winning the 5000m title at the C-USA Indoor Championships, earning the C-USA Indoor Track Performer of the Meet honors. Roper capped off the year by winning her second consecutive C-USA Outdoor 10,000m title to earn C-USA Co-Track Performer of the Meet honors.

Also in 2014-15, the women's cross country team posted the highest GPA (3.76) amongst all qualifying C-USA teams. The Owls were named a USTFCCCA All-Academic Team and Katie Jensen and Cali Roper were each named to the C-USA All-Academic Team. Under Bevan's watch the women's track and field squad won their second straight Sport Academic Award with a team GPA of 3.57. Belle MacFarlane was named the C-USA Women's Track and Field Scholar Athlete of the Year and joined Roper on the C-USA All-Academic Team.

Bevan, was awarded his first South Central Regional Coach of the Year Award in cross country when the Owls made history in the fall of 2007 by winning the program's first ever NCAA South Central Regional championship to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship. He also earned C-USA Coach for the Year Award when the Owls won the 2007 conference title. It was Bevan's fifth conference cross country coaching honor and his second in C-USA. Previously, the Southwest Conference honored Bevan after the Owls' 1994 championship and by the Western Athletic Conference following Rice's team titles in 1999 and 2002. He won his first C-USA award when his cross country team captured the school's first title in its new conference in the fall of 2005.

Bevan earned the C-USA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee Coaches Choice Award for cross country in 2007. The award recognizes the coach most committed to fostering student-athlete development and welfare through a positive athletic and academic atmosphere. Bevan's insistence on the importance of academics is epitomized by his perfect graduation rate amongst Rice student-athletes with whom he has worked. Two of Bevan's athletes, Marissa Daniels for cross country and Callie Wells for track and field, earned 2006-07 C-USA Scholar Athlete of the Year Awards as the top student athletes in their sports.

Bevan's cross country runners have also prospered during the track season. Julie Jiskra placed fourth in the 10,000 meters at the 1991 NCAA outdoor meet, Nicole Aleskowitch finished fourth in the 3000 meters at the 1994 NCAA outdoor meet, and Canadian Candace Lessmeister was an eight-time SWC middle-distance champion and the runner-up in the mile at the national indoor meet in 1994. Stacy Swank garnered All-America honors in the 3,000 in 1995, while Shaquandra Roberson earned All-America honors in 2000 following her fourth-place finishes at the NCAA outdoor championships in the 800- and 1500-meters, the only runner in the nation to double as an all-American that year.

Under Bevan, Rice has been a consistent force in the distance medley relay. In 1999, the distance medley relay team, comprised of Kari Vigerstol, Margaret Fox, Aimee Teteris and Erin Brand, won the USA Track and Field Championships and finished sixth at the NCAA championships. The 2000 DMR crew of Vigerstol, Teteris, Allison Beckford, and Roberson, set the Rice record of 11:15.70 with a sixth-place finish at the NCAA indoor championships.

Claudia Haywood won five SWC championships, earned four all-America honors and captured both the NCAA and USA outdoor triple jump titles in 1993. Jumpers Sonya Henry, Diane Somerville, Yvette Haynes and, Alice Falaiye have all earned All-America honors under his direction. Falaiye later competed in the 2001 world championships and went on to win the long jump gold medal in the 2003 Pan American Games.

Before joining the Rice staff in 1986, he was an assistant men's track and cross country coach for three years at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colo. Bevan was an assistant to Dr. Joe I. Vigil, the U.S. distance coach for the 1988 and 2008 Olympics, the 1991 U.S. Pan American team head coach and a seven-time U.S. Cross Country coach.

While Bevan was at Adams State, they won three consecutive NAIA cross country titles and set an NAIA scoring record at the national meet. The school has won more cross country national championships than any other school in the country (30). Bevan graduated from Adams State in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in history and physical education. In the summer of 1986, he earned his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Adams State as well. Bevan is a USATF certified Level I and Level II coach.

Jim and his wife, Vicki, reside in Houston.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ANDREA BLACKETT

ASSISTANT COACH - 11TH SEASON

One of the most successful women's track athletes to don the Rice blue and gray, Andrea Blackett is in her 11th season as an assistant coach for the Owls.

In 2008 Blackett helped guide Sarah Lyons to C-USA titles in both the indoor and outdoor 400m and was also an outdoor NCAA qualifier. That same year Blackett retired from international competition and served her native country of Barbados as its head track and field coach at the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Blackett, in 2007, was responsible for the development of freshman Shakera Reece, who set a school-record in the 100 meters (11.34) as well as coaching Chandra Ewing (NCAA regional qualifier) to a C-USA outdoor title in the 400m hurdles, an event that Blackett dominated in her competitive career at Rice from 1994-97. That same season Blackett coached Funmi Jimoh to break her own school record in the 100m hurdles.

She joined Melissa Straker, TaNisha Mills and Margaret Fox in the 4x400m relay to win the first NCAA indoor relay title for the Owls in 1997, setting a school record of 3:34.44.

Blackett finished her collegiate career as a six-time All-America, including back-to-back turns in the 400m hurdles in 1996 and 1997. She qualified for the NCAA championships all four years and was a regional qualifier in the 4x100 relay from 2006-08.

Blackett still holds the school record in the 400m outdoor hurdles, as well as the indoor hurdle mark for the 55m.

She was inducted into the Rice Athletic Hall of Fame individually in 2005 and again in 2007 as a member of the 1997 NCAA champion 4x400 relay.

A veteran international competitor, Blackett represented Barbados in six IAAF World Championships (1997-07). She qualified for the final four times and in 1999 she placed fourth. She competed in the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games, qualifying for the semifinal of the 400m hurdles and she competed in the 400m hurdles at the 2004 Athens Olympics.

Blackett has a personal best of 53.36 in the 400m hurdles, which is also a national record for Barbados. She set the Barbados 100m hurdles record of 13.39 in 2003. Blackett holds an undergraduate degree from Rice and a master's degree in hotel management from the University of Houston.

NANCY WENZEL-SANREGRET

ASSISTANT COACH - 15TH SEASON

Nancy Wenzel-Sanregret's main responsibility lies with the Rice throwers.

Wenzel oversaw the development of Rice All American thrower Claire Uke, who in 2015 broke Regina Cavanaugh's 29 year old school record in the shot put with a mark of 58'10" (17.95m). The record breaking mark earned her the win the C-USA Indoor Championship and the Conference CUSA Indoor Shot Put record. Uke would go on to earn USTFCCA First Team All American honors with an eight place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Uke also claimed 8th place finish at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Championship.

Wenzel also coached two time All American Krystal Robinson (2006). Krystal earned fourth place at the NCAA Championship in 2005, becoming the Owls' first All-American in the event. In 2006, Krystal finished her career with a third place finish at the NCAA Championships and was ranked 8th in the nation by US Track & Field News. Krystal owned school records in all three events (discus, hammer and weight throw) while at Rice from 2003-06. She is still the current discus record holder with a career best of 55.94/183' 6"). She was also the Western Athletic Conference's discus champion in 2005 and the 2006 Conference USA discus champion.

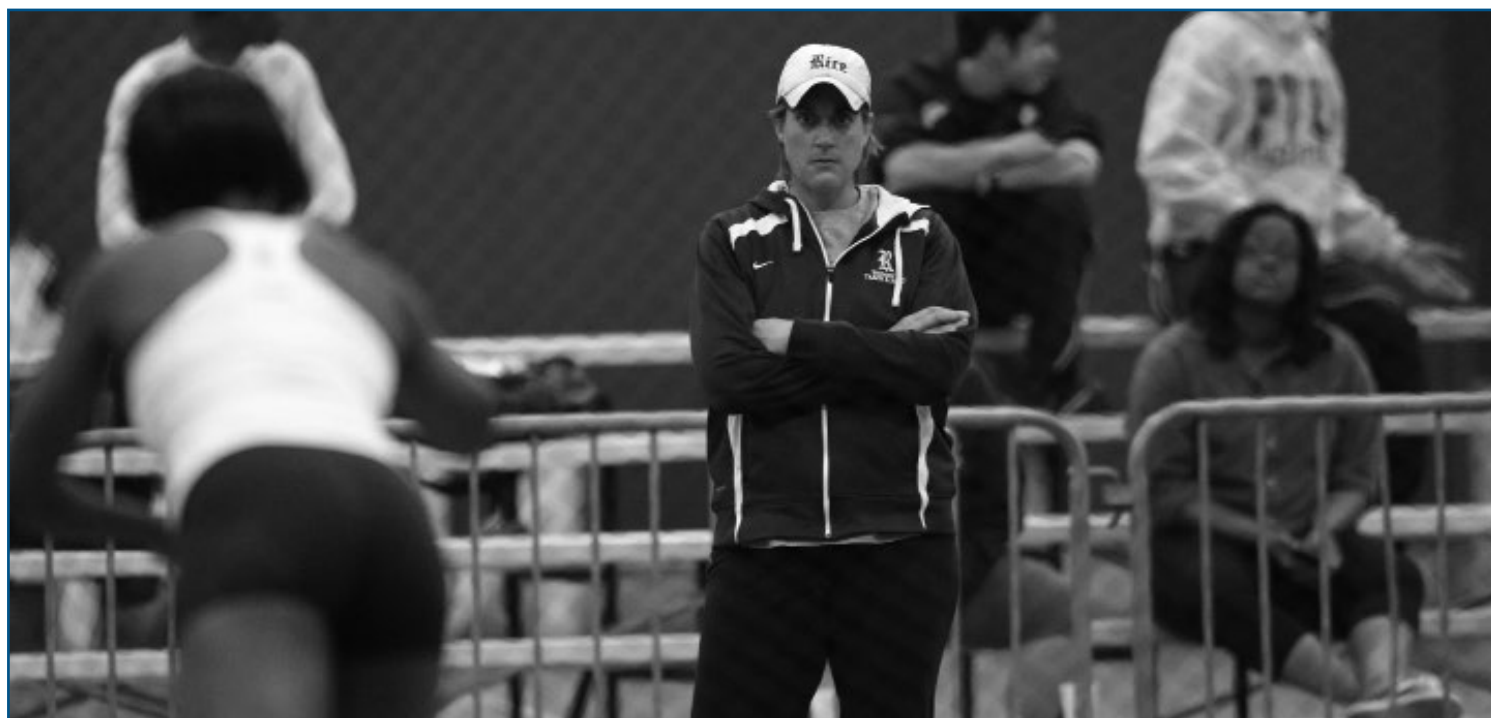

Tina Robinson (2011) was not to be outdone by her older sister Krystal. Tina was the best 20lb Weight Thrower for Rice with a heave of 18.07/59'3.5". She also held the hammer record of 53.13m/174' in from 2011-2013.

Sharae Robinson (2013), the youngest daughter of the Robinson family, took her place in Rice history with the school record in the hammer 65.50m/185'4" and by becoming the second best discus thrower in the history of Rice with a throw of 53.68m/176'1". She graduated as a two time CUSA Conference Champion and NCAA West Preliminary Round qualifier in both the discus and hammer in 2013.

Rounding off the list of hammer records under Nancy Wenzel's tenure, is Katie Dollinger (10) who threw 53m/173'11" and Teresa Crismon (04) set a school record in the hammer throw, a heave of 159-9.

Wenzel coached pole vault and javelin thrower Ariana Ince (11). Ari was the runner up for the 2011 CSUA Championship and took 14th at the 2011 NCAA West Preliminary Round. Ari also pole vaulted for Rice 4.11/13' 5.75". Her best mark in the javelin is 48.17/158'0").

Wenzel joined the Owls' track and field staff in 2001 after spending a year as an assistant coach for the Michigan State Spartans, where she focused on the throws and pole vault as well as serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's track and field team. Prior to her tenure in East Lansing, Mich., she worked primarily with the sprinters and assisted with the throws at Washington State University.

DAVID BUTLER

ASSISTANT COACH - 16TH SEASON

Widely regarded as one of the top pole vault coaches in the country, David Butler begins his 16th year as an assistant coach of both the men's and women's pole vaulters at Rice University.

Butler oversaw the development of All-American vaulter Chris Pillow, who graduated in 2015 as one of the most decorated athlete in Rice history. Pillow won five consecutive C-USA titles (indoor/outdoor) and set a conference record with a vault of 5.41m (17-09.00) in 2015. That same season Pillow also placed seventh at the NCAA Indoor Championships, earning USTFCCCA First-Team All-American honors.

The 2009 indoor and outdoor seasons proved fruitful for Butler and the Rice pole vaulting corps. Junior Jason Colwick had an exceptional year winning the 2009 NCAA Indoor title and the 2009 NCAA Outdoor championship as well. Colwick also posted the nation's number outdoor one mark for the second straight year. At the 2009 USA National Pole Vault Summit, Butler was awarded the 2009 Sports Culture Award for his work in promoting the history of the sport in the education of USA athletes and coaches. This award was given by the North American Pole Vault Association and the USA National Pole Vault Development Staff.

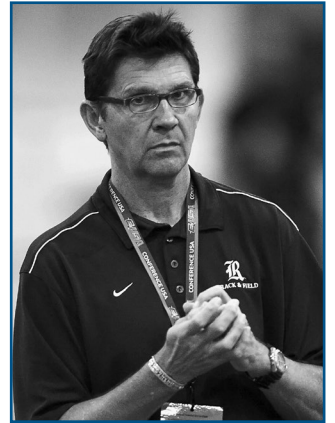

In 2008, Colwick posted the NCAA's number one mark in the pole vault, 5.55m/18-2.5, at the Texas Twilight Meet. Colwick also won the Conference USA outdoor title with a meet record mark of 5.31m/17-5.

He was inducted to the Spring Branch Memorial Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004, and into the New Haven High (Ind.) School Hall of Fame in 2006. He was the feature speaker at the 2012 Somero (Finland) Pole Vault Carnival, and presented at the 2008 & 2009 Houston Pole Vault Coaches Symposium and the 2011 HISD Coaches' Conference.

Butler's articles have been published in Techniques Magazine, The Pole Vault Standard, and recognized in The Illustrated History of the Pole Vault, Beginner to Bubka, and The Who's Who in the Pole Vault. He is the creator of the "Steel to Fiberglass" and "140 Drills and Exercises for the Pole Vault" instructional DVDs, and the Facebook page, "The Vault: How Bamboo, Steel & Fiberglass Changed Our Lives."

One of his most accomplished vaulters was former Rice Owl Rachel Greff. In 2006, 2007, and 2008, Greff won both the indoor and outdoor C-USA pole vault titles. Greff earned All-America status in 2008 by placing fifth at the NCAA Outdoor Championship and she also placed second at the NCAA Midwest Regional. She is Rice's record-holder for outdoor with a mark of 4.20m (13-9.25).

He is a former school record holder in the pole vault at Ball State.

RICE OLYMPIANS

Funmi Jimoh

Andrea Blackett and Olympic mascot, Jingjing.

2008 - Beijing Olympics

Rice was well represented at the 2008 Beijing Olympics as former Owl great Funmi Jimoh competed in the women's long jump and was coached by Rice head coach Jim Bevan. Also, Rice assistant coach, Andrea Blackett, served as Barbados' head track and field coach during the Beijing Games.

Andrea Blackett competed for Barbados at the 2000 Sydney Olympics in the 400m hurdles and the 4x400m relay and in the 2004 Athens Olympics in the 400m hurdles.

Allison Beckford competed for Jamaica at the 2004 Athens Olympics in the 400m. She won a bronze medal in the 4x400m relay at the 2003 IAAF World Championship for Jamaica.

Rosey Edeh competed in three Olympiads (1988 Seoul, 1992 Barcelona, and 1996 Atlanta) for Canada in the 400m hurdles.

Maureen Stewart competed for Costa Rica in the 800m at the 1988 Seoul Olympics.

Margaret Fox competed for Canada in the 4x400m relay at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

RICE OLYMPIANS

Cherita Howard competed in the 1996 Atlanta Olympics for Barbados in the long jump.

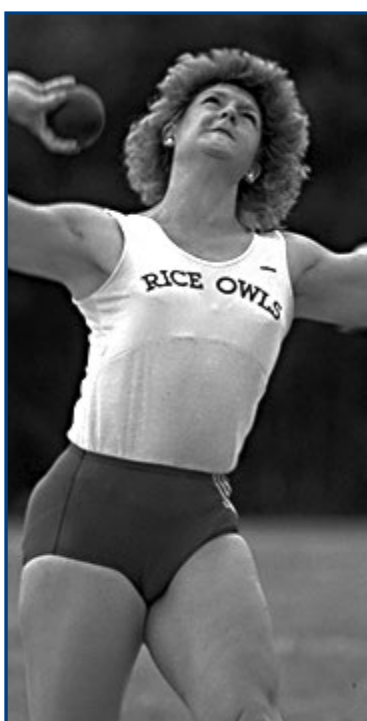

Melissa Straker competed in the 1996 Atlanta Olympics for Barbados in the 400m and the 4x400m relay in 2000.

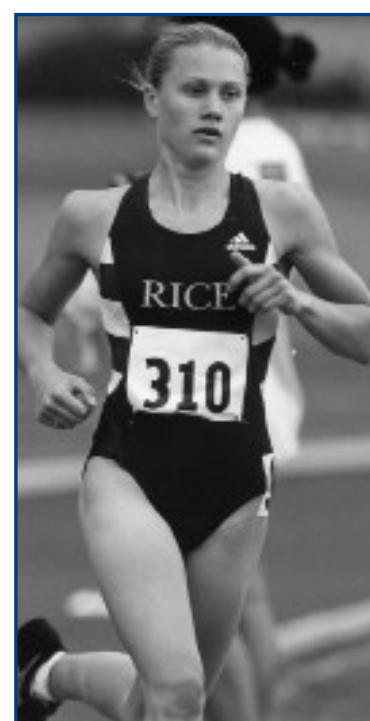

Alice Falaiye, competing for Canada, won the gold medal at the 2003 Pan American Games in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic and the 2010 Commonwealth Games.

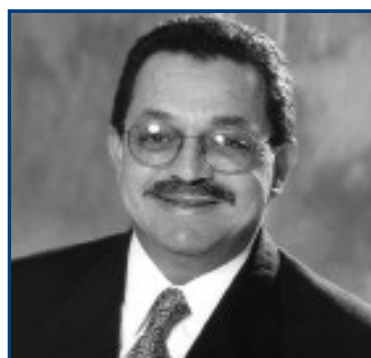

Heather McDermid, an 800m All-America runner at Rice, competed for Canada's crew team (eight) that won silver in 2000 Sydney Olympics and bronze at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta.

Regina Cavanaugh, served as an alternate for the United States in the shot put for the 1984 Los Angeles and 1988 Seoul Olympics.

Aimee Teteris, competed internationally for Canada in the 800m at the 2004 IAAF World Indoor Championship in Budapest.

Former Rice head coach Victor Lopez coached the Puerto Rican track and field team at the 2004 Athens Games and the Olympic teams that competed in Barcelona in 1992 and Sydney in 2000. Lopez is a five-time WAC coach of the year and earned NCAA district coach of the year three times. Presently he serves as Chairman of the IAAF Coaches Commission and is president of the Central American and Caribbean Athletics Confederation and of the North America, Central American, and Caribbean Track and Field Coaches Association. He is also president for the Pan American Games.
