2018 Christmas party at the Woolston Club.

In December last year SkillWise held its first Christmas party at the Woolston Club. It was a huge success, complete with a talent show, photo booth and buffet lunch. We have already rebooked the venue for this year's Christmas function which will be held on Thursday the 12th of December 2019. The Newsletter team would like to welcome everyone back for 2019!

Film Review: Mortal Engines

This film drew very mixed reviews from our newsletter's film panel. The general consensus was that Mortal Engines was very confusing. Sarah commented that she would recommend the film to her friends but certainly not her mother. Robert exclaimed that he didn't know what the director was trying to achieve with this film. The special effects were impressive but the storyline was so disjointed that no amount of entertaining explosions could save the movie from self-destruction. 2/5 Stars.

Trent (far left) was recently recognised for all the support and effort he has put into helping out the Saints Premier Cricket Team.
