Dear Sir / Madam,

Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), has forwarded a letter from the Director General, Publications Division, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India regarding repository of quality books at affordable price that highlight India's rich and diverse cultural heritage, ranging from History, Art and Culture, Land and People, Flora and Fauna to biographies of national leaders, reformers and thinkers of India besides children's literature. Apart from this, there is a large treasure of Gandhian Literature which has been published by the Publications Division as Gandhian works of seminal importance. A catalogue of books on Gandhi Ji is enclosed. You are requested to refer to this catalogue for your libraries. This may also be brought to the notice of the colleges affiliated to your university.

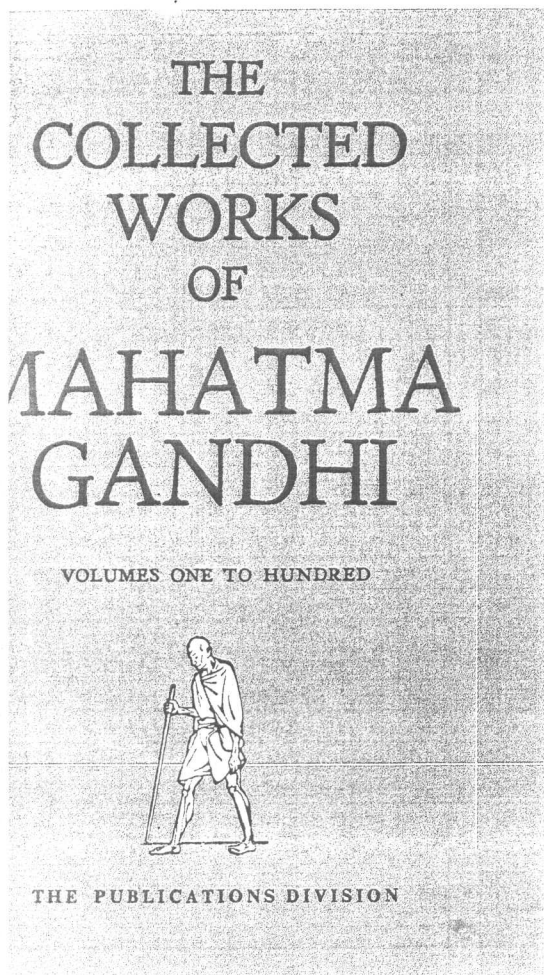

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)

The Collected Works of Mahatma Gandhi (100 Volumes) Publications Division

The Collected Works of Mahatma Gandhi is a 100-volume series, each running into about 500 pages. In what is perhaps the biggest multi-volume project in the world, these volumes constitute Gandhiji's writings, speeches, letters, interviews, and telegrams. The works cover the period 1884-1948, in a strictly chronological order, almost sixty years of Gandhiji's intensively active public life. The objective of the series is to reproduce Gandhiji's actual words as far as possible. Appendices provide the background material relevant to the text. Acknowledgements, sources, chronology, and indices also form part of the individual volume.
