

Law of Interpretation

not Attraction

The Movie “The Secret” is wrong. You do not completely create the world or the events around you. You do completely control your interpretation of the world and the events around you.

It is not the Law of Attraction, it is an Effect of Attraction. It is a Law of Interpretation. There is the law of gravity. What goes up must come down, but there some few exemptions. This constitutes a law. It is seldom changed. The Law of Interpretation says that any verbal human will interpret what has happened to him based on his experiences, beliefs, and philosophies. He will always impose an attempt to explain what happens to him. Even “Shit Doth Happen” is an explanation.

In physics a weak force can affect things. We have the “observer effect” and the mind has been proven to be able to effect things. There is power in the human mind to affect objects. Telekinesis, remote viewing, Extra-Sensory Perception etc are all proven to be possible, but the effect is weak. But the effect is there. (see the “Proof” movie)

We can affect our lives and we have some very small control over objects, the world, and the events around us. But we have great and complete control over how we interpret the objects, the world, and the events around us.

All of the people in Hiroshima did not wake up that August morning and create the bomb, nor did they deserve it. All of them later interpreted the results. Most saw the bomb as a negative event. But some saw it as a growing event and a positive result. Nelson Mandela came out of jail after more than two decades and saw it as a positive thing. Some people can find the positive in the most horrendous events. We completely control the interpretation of the objects, the world, and the events around us. Some use negativity to describe the events, some use positivity but all interpret the events. All do this from within their own brains. The state of your brain determines the state of your interpretation of the world around you.

Some people are always happy and they learn to find the silver lining in every cloud. Some people are always dissatisfied and find fault in all around them. But all of us completely control the interpretation of the world around us. We do have some limited control of the world around us but we will never have complete control.

“The Secret” is wrong, in that you cannot just sit at home and think of things and bring them into your life. “The Secret” is right that you can affect your life positively and you can dramatically increase your chances of getting what you want. If you want to get a job you must fill out an application or two.

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a black sheer long-sleeved dress with a black corset-style bodice and black and white chevron-patterned tights, stands in a room. She is smiling and has her arms outstretched. To her right, bright green laser lights create a starburst effect. The background features dark, textured walls and a large black floor monitor on the left.

People think there is a law of attraction, but it does not hold out as a way to predict things. If it were a law then we could predict things. Example: if someone throws a rock off of a building and there is a crowd below, someone in the crowd will get hit by the rock. Now we might say the bad guy got it because he deserved it. The good guy got it because he was too good. The sad guy got it because he was negative and he brought it to him. The happy guy got it because he needed to learn a lesson. But in truth we do not know who gets it before it is done.

If there were a law we could predict the outcome easily. We could put a crowd in place and let one guy focus on wanting the rock to hit him and he does chants of mantras I want the rock. The rest of the people do chants of protection and affirmations that they are protected from rocks. We throw the rock and no matter how powerful the meditations we just don't know who will get it till after it hits.

After it hits we then are always able to explain it. We say the bad guy got it because he deserved it. The good guy got it because he was too good. The sad guy got it because he was negative and he brought it to him. The happy guy got it because he needed to learn a lesson. The human mind can interpret things very well after the fact. President Gerald Ford said that Hind Sight is 20/20. But Fore Sight is just probability theory. The law of interpretation holds fast.

When President Harry Truman dropped two bombs on non-military target cities of women and children, there was so much radioactive fallout thrown into the air. If one of these alpha ray or beta ray fallout products were to be ingested or breathed in the person would get cancer and die. There was such an increase in cancer in America after the three atmospheric detonations of atomic weapons of mass destruction that the world had to declare atmospheric atomic detonation illegal. Harry S. Truman killed more Americans with fallout over the next fifteen years than he killed Japanese on that day. Here once again people interpret his actions based on their own perceptions. In some minds he was a hero, in another mind he is a War Crime criminal. But I feel if more people knew what happened there would be more people thinking the later. (see the movie "War Crimes Trail of Harry S Truman")

Now who got the radioactive fallout, the good, the bad, the ugly, the deserving? The answer is we cannot predict, but we can always explain. Whatever happens people will step forward and explain why. You do not completely create the world or the events around you. You do completely control your interpretation of the world and the events around you. Your mind interprets what is around you.

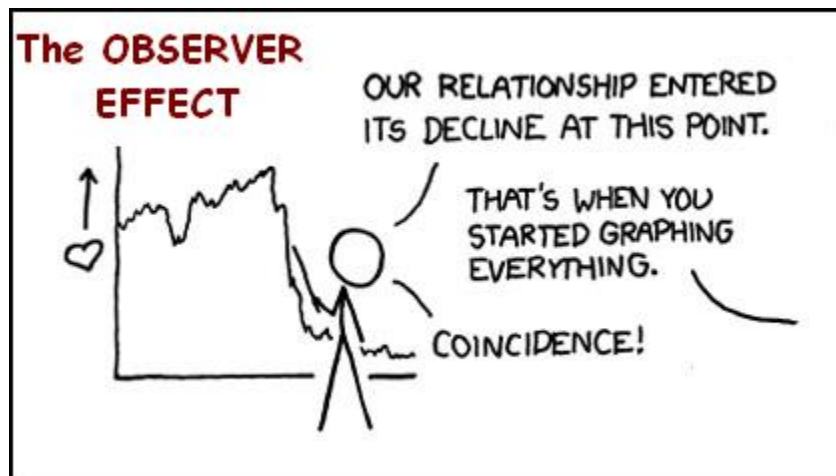

In sports we can analyze, study and examine the details of the two teams competing. If there was a law of attraction we could always or at least generally predict a winner from who attracts it the most. But this is not the case. We must play the game. And no one knows the outcome. But after the outcome everyone steps forward with an explanation. Your mind has a weak power to affect your surrounding but a strong firm power to interpret events after they are completed.

The condition of your mind, spirit and soul determines how you perceive the world around you.

God and The Cosmos

I believe firmly in a God that does guide all of us for growth and spiritual development. This allows for karma as well. The theory of the big bang states that all of the energy in the universe or at least a big chunk of it came through a singularity in one to the minus forty third of a second. Matter will later evolve from condensation of this energy. This means that all things all particles have a quantum entwined history. Particles of quantum energy that were once entwined can communicate with each other as in Bell's theorem. The PEAR project proved that there was a connectivity of things and that the human mind a known quantum engine could communicate with things. There is a God consciousness of the universe. This God consciousness determines who gets the radioactive particle.

We have a part of the God consciousness in us. But just because a drop of water has the same characteristics as the ocean the drop should not think it is the ocean. We have some small part of this power in us but we need to be humble.

So the message to the "What the Beep" people is firmly you can affect your world slightly. God controls your world completely. We need to have humility. You need to act not just think. And you do control your interpretation of the events completely.

And people will interpret their reality as they see fit, and often this means they will adjust their interpretation to fit their belief system. I have seen scientist observe undeniable data on UFO, the powers of the mind, psychic phenomena, Ghosts etc and after seeing irrefutable evidence they adapt an interpretation to fit their dogma. It is difficult for people to face their disbeliefs. We don't create the world around us we interpret how we see it.

They say there is always a quote "RATIONAL EXPLANATION". Of course the rational human mind after the fact can always make a rational explanation. This does not mean it is true but they must do it to preserve their belief system. Any rational explanation will do to allow them to drop pursuit into paranormal. For maintain a false belief is more important than truth.

The human mind must try to preserve its integrity. Everything we do has error built in. Some would say that this alone guarantees the uncertainty problem. But this alone would imply that technology might solve the problem with less error. But in fact indeterminacy goes beyond error and extends to all things at the core of existence.

$$\Delta x \Delta p_x \geq \frac{1}{2} \hbar$$

FREEWILL

"Heisenberg gave Man free will"

The World we Live in Has Indeterminacy built into it

$Uncertainty = \begin{cases} Inaccuracy \\ Imprecision \end{cases}$
 $Error = \begin{cases} Inaccuracy \\ Imprecision \end{cases}$
 $Uncertainty\ principle = Error\ principle$

There is Error in all things but the Indeterminacy Principle goes beyond Error the basic core of all existence is indeterminant

Even when we know the way things should turn out we must Play the Game, Because we just don't know, in life things have a degree of indeterminacy built in, and sometimes "Shit Happens", Owen's Law

You Can Take the Indeterminacy principle too far. Even though it is true and we do have Free Will. We must act on what we know and try to act on our predictions of outcomes. We need to play the game of life as best we can. And see where the outcomes lead us.

$$\Delta x \Delta p \geq \frac{\hbar}{2}$$

You can take the Indeterminacy Principle too far

We need to find a balance of rationality and indeterminacy. The Yin versus Yang. There is a need for rational logical linear thought as in Western philosophy, but it is not the only path to knowledge. The Eastern ways have more of the other side of the brain working finding dreams, art, beauty, intuition. There is a male and female mind, a left and right hemisphere, a dreamer and doer, a 'see'-er and a 'be'-er, a watcher and a player, an active agent and a passive one all in each of us and many more. As we learn about the differences and the polarities we learn about ourselves. We learn to be the best we can and how to face life when 'Shit Happens'.

The best doctor is the doctor within. The best teacher is the teacher within. When you discover this and you activate it with modesty and humility recognizing what you don't know is always greater than what you know, life is much better. You can do anything it is just a matter of time.

Laws Versus Rules

You can call me anything except late for dinner

But if people respect personal freedom they will call me my chosen name Desire'.

Some people are more caught up in the way something looks rather than it's true nature and some people have limited minds but if you are true to truth, and you respect freedom over conformity then You can call me Desire'. I am deeply respectful of the law, in that way I am very very conservative.

But I am very suspicious and not respectful of rules. There is a law in South Carolina that says a person labeled male on his birth certificate cannot openly dress as a female. So I won't visit South Carolina. For the rest of America this is a rule not a law. I do not respect the rules of conformity. I do not respect the rules of convention or tradition. I challenge them with one word freedom. Small petty minds try to take away freedom and prefer tradition.

Once a FDA agent came into my office in Denver Colorado and he demanded we close up the shop because he said homeopathy was illegal. It was a rule he said. I took him into the office and showed him the FDA law. The FDA was founded by a homeopath. Homeopathy appears three times in the first three pages. He apologized and left.

You see the law is how we run our society. And our society makes and assumes rules. Many governmental people do not know the difference. They even think a rule is sometimes a law. But the law is always written on paper and can be read and enforced. Still there are times we need courts to decide when police or enforcement people have differing opinions than the public. Such was the case in 1996, when the FDA had a rule to ban acupuncture. The FDA thought that this was a law. I challenged this rule. And I won acupuncture became a real medical art in March 1996 because of me. I used the law to change the rule.

Right now many people think that energetic medicine is illegal. This is a rule not a law, and I fight to defeat this rule and preserve the law. The law allows energetic medicine today. I am sure that we will need to go to a judge to decide this someday.

I do not break laws. I work diligently to obey laws. The FDA has broken the law in their vendetta against me and One day I will prove that. I left America in March right after Judge Matsch made the FDA and the Prosecutor dismiss the case against me on leap day 1996. The FDA went to Washington in June 1996 and tricked a Grand Jury into illegally making a bogus indictment against me. There was no charge against me when I left. So I did not flee, nor am I a fugitive.

I am a concerned citizen who is waiting for an American judge to rule on the validity of my case before I return. I have obeyed every law and always do. But everyone has denied me a judge to rule on the validity of the indictment against me. I have been warned of a conspiracy against me to have me put away without the chance of seeing a judge how could free me like the last one did.

I do not respect nor do I feel obligated to obey rules. Salesmen think that it is a rule they should wear a suit. I tried to tell them that most everyone knows to never trust a suit. But he is caught between people who are confused by rules and think their rules are law.

I have changed my name and sex rating in America. There are three American ID papers used, Passport, Driver's License, and Voter's registration. My medical papers say I am both sexes and can chose which one I want. My only driver's license from Kentucky lists me as Desire' Dubounet and female. My voter's registration in Colorado is as Desire' Dubounet and lists me as female as well. So by American law I am Desire' Dubounet and female. This is the law, but for some this voids a rule. For some rules are more important than laws. It is a pity. For me law is more important than rules.

It's been a tough time to be proud of being an American. I have been prosecuted, persecuted, wronged by rumours, innuendo, and out right lies. They have terminated my passport, and attacked me behind my back.

But still I have faith that there is good in people and that justice and truth will prevail.

I will defeat the small and petty minds and bring hope to the people...

...being an American

For a true Democracy there should be an opportunity for the people to express themselves on each and every issue.

Not with biased poles, but with active debate and discussion. With today's technology and the internet we have the ability to have a true democracy and take money and lobbyists out of influence.

New representatives could run and contractually guarantee that the true wishes of the people be done.

Not just the needs of Big Money.

We must take back our country.

My name is legally in America, Europe, Africa, and around the world is Desire' Billie Dubounet

I studied the Buddhist way and that the cause of all suffering is Desire. To stop suffering you must control Desire. This was my doctoral thesis, in New Orleans. So when I choose my female name I choose Desire' to always remind me that desire has to be controlled. It can be expressed but controlled.

When Dustin Hoffman first became Tootsie in the movie he was in the Russian Tea Room in NY and he ordered a Dubonnet with a Twist, I said well I my life has now a twist.

But Dubonnet is the drink, Dubounet in French is a beautiful sexy bonnet worn by the most elegant of women. I am an elegant woman. Dubounet rhymed with Desire' so I choose my name.

For my middle name I choose Delicious, in my stand up comedy I say that "Delicious is my middle name. It is not my whole name. It is the name of my hole." Ta Da drum role

By American law of the 14th amendment you can change your name by yourself in most states (not in California, but yes in Colorado) but the law says you cannot use trivial sexy terms and the specifically use the word "Delicious" as an example of words you can't use. So I cannot make my middle name Delicious.

When my father was born at first they thought the child was female, same with me. So the name on his birth certificate is Billie. The female spelling not Billy the male spelling. One week later my father's penis popped out and then on the birth certificate you can see where they erased female and changed it to male but they did not change the spelling of his name.

So my dad went thru life with a female name and he was tortured and troubled by the sex identity crisis with his hermaphrodite heart. He was bitter, mean, fearful, nasty and cruel and he hated almost everybody. He was abusive and brutal to my mother. But he was my dad and to honor him I took the middle name Billie. This reminds me of how a person can twist their soul, mind and those around him when they have to suppress and repress their inner feelings. It reminds me to love the sinner and hate the sin. It reminds me that to suppress a truth is to give it power over you.

For me to have the courage, the fortitude, the power of mind to be me what I am and not what others want me to be. It takes extreme power of personality and intellect.
