Caps active in free agency

On the first day of the NHL's free agency period, Washington signed defenseman Brooks Orpik to a five-year contract, defenseman Matt Niskanen to a seven-year contract and goaltender Justin Peters to a two-year contract. The Capitals also re-signed center Michael Latta to a two-year contract.

Orpik ranks first among defensemen in Pittsburgh franchise history in games played (703), fifth in penalty minutes (734) and ninth in assists (119).

Niskanen set career highs in points (46), goals (10), assists (36), games played (81) and game-winning goals (6) in 2013-14 and led all NHL defensemen in plus/minus (+33).

Peters appeared in a career-high 21 games during the 2013-14 season, recording a 7-9-4 record with a 2.50 goals-against average and .919 save percentage.

Latta registered four points (one goal, three assists) and 12 penalty minutes in 17 games with Washington during the 2013-14 season.
