TRACK STARS

Climb aboard these train rides and attractions for a new way to sightsee. BY ROBERT ANNIS

THE SCENIC ROUTE

The diesel-electric locomotive of French Lick Scenic Railway chugs by Southern Indiana limestone cliffs, an 1850s log cabin and Hoosier National Forest, and through the 2,200-foot-long Burton Railroad Tunnel. Take in more scenery by booking a seat on the transparent dome car. Specialty trips include the Wild West Hold-Up, where armed Lost River Renegades try to steal the train's valuable loot. 8594 W. S.R. 56, French Lick, 800.748.7246, frenchlickscenicrailway.org (S)

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Excursions on the Whitewater Valley Railroad head from Connersville to the historic town of Metamora. Riders will see plenty of rural Hoosier beauty along the 38-mile roundtrip journey. During the two-hour layover, visitors can check out Metamora's working grist mill and horse-drawn canal boat, as well as shops and restaurants. Looking for something special for the kids? Book seats for a pumpkin-patch outing, The Polar Express or a Day Out with Thomas the

Tank Engine. 455 Market St., Connersville, 765.825.2054, whitewatervalleyrr.org (E)

STEP UP TO THE PLATE

Hop on the Nickel Plate Express—pulled by a 1956 F9 diesel engine—at various Hamilton County locales. Riders can soak up the scenery through the Santa Fe Railway hi-level cars' huge, wide windows that offer great views of farm fields, Morse Reservoir and small towns along the route. In addition to standard rides, the Nickel Plate Express offers special Ales & Rails and Uncorked trips featuring Indiana-made craft brews and wine, respectively. 107 W. South St., Atlanta, 317.285.0682, nickelplateexpress.com (C)

FULL STEAM AHEAD

The 155-acre Hesston Steam Museum honors the state's industrial heritage with three railroads of varying sizes on which guests can ride. Themed events include Civil War train raids, ghost trains and expeditions on the Candy Cane Express in early December. After you disembark, check out the other large-scale equipment, such as a sawmill and a steam crane. 1201 E. 1000 N., Hesston, 219.778.2783, hesston.org (N)

NORTH BY NORTHWEST

The Amtrak Hoosier State Train runs four days a week, boarding in downtown Indianapolis. On the roughly five-hour trip, riders head northwest and traverse huge swaths of farmland and stop in a handful of Indiana towns before arriving in Chicago. 350 S. Illinois St., Indianapolis, 800.872.7245, amtrak.com/hoosier-state-train (C) (W) (N)

GARDEN'S VARIETY

If your train fascination only extends to watching tiny versions of the machines, the Railway Garden at Gabis Arboretum is for you. Ambling through the highly detailed nature- and history-heavy exhibits, you'll find vignettes that depict Lincoln's funeral train stopped in Michigan City and an Indiana limestone quarry, among others. The seasonal attraction runs May to September. 450 W. 100 N., Valparaiso, 219.462.0025, pnw.edu/gabis-arboretum (N) 📍

INDIANA'S THRIVING ARTISAN DISTILLERIES ARE WELL WORTH RAISING A TOAST. by Amy Lynch

BEAR WALLOW DISTILLERY (1)

4484 Old S.R. 46,
Nashville, 812.657.4923,
bearwallowdistillery
.com (SC)

This family-operated distillery uses an old-fashioned copper pot still and locally grown grain to create moonshine and whiskey in the rolling hills of Brown County.

TASTING ROOM Belly up to the barrel seats at the bar for a Lemonade Moonshine Shake-Up after a tour.

WHAT IT MAKES Hoosier Hooch Corn Whiskey Moonshine, Hidden Holler Corn Whiskey Moonshine, Bear Trap Barrel Strength White Whiskey, Liar's Bench Rye Whiskey, Gnaw Bone Bourbon and Wolf Creek Four Grain Whiskey.

STARLIGHT DISTILLERY AT HUBER'S ORCHARD & WINERY (2)

19816 Huber Rd.,
Starlight, 812.923.9463, huberwinery.com (S)

Huber's distillery arm turns out award-winning fine brandies using traditional European-style production methods.

TASTING ROOM Following a tour, settle in for a flight of samples inside a charming 1930s dairy barn-turned-tasting room.

WHAT IT MAKES Fruit-flavored brandies, infusions and ports; whiskey, bourbon, spiced rum, gin, grappa, vodka and applejack.

OLD 55 DISTILLERY (3)

311 E. Washington St.,
Newtown, old55distillery
.com (W)

Named for the Fountain County road on which it's located in West Central Indiana, family-run Old 55 honors its Midwestern roots and principles by taking its time and doing things right.

TASTING ROOM Wood decor and homey details set the stage for convivial sipping and sampling in a modern yet rustic atmosphere.

WHAT IT MAKES Corn Whiskey, Barrel-Strength Single-Barrel Bourbon and 100-percent Sweet Corn Bourbon.

HOTEL TANGO ARTISAN DISTILLERY (4)

702 Virginia Ave.,
Indianapolis, 317.653.1806, hoteltangowhiskey
.com (C)

U.S. Marine Corps veteran Travis Barnes turned his attention to launching his artisan distillery in 2014 following three combat tours in Iraq.

TASTING ROOM Within cozy confines, customers can grab a bar seat or sink into comfy couches to sip cocktails in front of a fireplace.

WHAT IT MAKES Golf Gin, Victor Vodka, Romeo Rum, Mike Moonshine, Lima Charlie Limoncello, Oscar Charlie Orangecello, Bravo Bourbon and Whiskey.

THE INDIANA WHISKEY COMPANY (5)

1115 W. Sample St., South
Bend, 574.520.1915, inwhiskey.com (N)

This veteran-owned-and-operated business uses a locally fabricated still designed by owner Charles Florence. It's heated by direct fire to produce a small but well-curated selection of whiskeys.

TASTING ROOM It's a laidback spot with a view directly into the distilling facility, which you can tour.

WHAT IT MAKES Just Whiskey wheated bourbon, Silver Sweet Corn Whiskey, Breakfast of Degenerates maple whiskey and Hoosier Sweet Heat cinnamon whiskey.

OAKLEY BROTHERS DISTILLERY (6)

34 W. Eighth St.,
Anderson, 765.274.5590, oakleybrothers
distillery.com (E)

Brothers Jason and Jerrad Oakley opened their operation after a brainstorm during a hiking trek in Machu Picchu.

TASTING ROOM In a renovated 1919 building, the industrial-chic room boasts food service and live music.

WHAT IT MAKES Indiana Moon Moonshine, Hell or Rye Water Bourbon, 317 Vodka, 765 Gin, Uno Mas Agave Spirit, Indiana Moon Apple Pie Moonshine, Flyover Whiskey and craft beer.

BARN READY

Indiana's agricultural destinations cultivate a bumper crop of sights, tastes and experiences. BY AMY LYNCH

GOAT MILK STUFF

76 S. Lake Rd. N.,
Scottsburg, 812.752.0622, goatmilkstuff.com (S)

SEE AND DO Pit stop off I-65 in Southern Indiana and pay a visit to the 200 resident goats—and chickens and rabbits—on this Grade-A goat dairy farm near Louisville. The 36-acre property includes three goat barns, a soap-production facility, a milking parlor and edible treats for sale.

FOR KIDS Baby goat encounters let little guests coo and cuddle with the youngest, most adorable members of the herd. Helpful tips to keep in mind: Wear clothes you won't mind getting dirty, and tie back long hair so it won't get chewed on.

FOR ADULTS Get your "om" on with yoga classes held outdoors or in the barn while curious baby goats wander in and out as you hold your poses.

TAKE IT HOME The Farm Store carries a fragrant array of soaps, lotions, candles and skin care; the Sweet Shop is where to find delicious gelato, milk, yogurt, fudge and other goodies.

COOK'S BISON RANCH

5645 E. 600 S., Wolcottville,
866.382.2356, cooks-bisonranch.com (N)

SEE AND DO The mighty bison reigns supreme at this wide-open Northern Indiana spread. Partly inspired by trips to Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming, third-generation owner Peter Cook launched the ranching operation with just 30 head of bison in 1998. Today, the Cook family tends to more than 500 animals here.

FOR KIDS Covered wagon tours pull right up into the herd, where kids can help hand-feed the bison as they learn about what it takes to raise and ranch these majestic animals. An add-on lunch option provides the chance to sample a buffalo burger or brat.

FOR ADULTS Chuckwagon-style lunches and dinners deliver a look at the ranch, followed by a down-home feast of roast bison and all the classic barbecue fixings served up in the barn.

TAKE IT HOME The gift shop sells bison meat and jerky, along with other items and accessories featuring the national mammal.

THE FARM AT PROPHETSTOWN

3534 Prophetstown Rd.,
West Lafayette, 765.567.4700, prophetstown.org (W)

SEE AND DO With a focus on sustainability, homesteading, heirloom gardening and farm-to-table fare, this 95-acre site on land leased from Prophetstown State Park near Lafayette takes visitors back in time to see how typical Indiana farms operated in the 1920s.

FOR KIDS This working farm lets little ones participate in daily chores, like feeding the animals, gardening and gathering eggs. Say hi to Bojangles and Hope, miniature horses who arrived on the farm by way of Indiana Horse Rescue.

FOR ADULTS The grown-ups in the group will appreciate opportunities to learn about beekeeping, canning, seed saving, sheep shearing and other activities through a schedule of workshops, demonstrations and events.

TAKE IT HOME Pop into the Gibson Farmhouse to browse a selection of farm-fresh eggs, Berkshire pork, Hereford beef and seasonal produce.

TRADERS POINT CREAMERY

9101 Moore Rd., Zionsville,
317.733.1700, traderspoint-creamery.com (C)

SEE AND DO Sitting pretty on 130 bucolic acres just northwest of Indianapolis, Traders Point holds the title of first USDA-certified organic dairy farm in Indiana. Guided farm tours illustrate how milk gets from the grass to the glass, and a scenic 1½-mile hiking trail winds through the fields skirting Eagle Creek.

FOR KIDS Visitors of all ages are welcome to observe the action each night in the milking parlor. Belly up to the Dairy Bar for ice cream, milkshakes, smoothies and other frosty treats.

FOR ADULTS The Loft Restaurant proposes scrumptious lunch, dinner and Sunday brunch menus with an undeniable farm-to-fork flavor, along with live music on Friday nights.

TAKE IT HOME With cheeses, charcuterie, honey, crackers, jams, chocolates, baked goods, coffee and tea, the Farm Store holds all the makings of a perfect picnic.

FAIR OAKS FARMS

856 N. 600 E.,
Fair Oaks, 877.536.1194,
f Farms.com (W)

SEE AND DO Dairy, Pig and Crop Adventures offer an up-close look at how things work at this 33,000-acre operation, from birthing calves and piglets to milking, harvesting and steps in between. The barn-themed Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott at Fair Oaks Farms is on track to open in early 2019, and a new 6,000-tree apple orchard will blossom in the fall.

FOR KIDS Interactive exhibits and activities, like the seasonal Mooville outdoor play area, keep young ones engaged as they learn.

FOR ADULTS The Farmhouse Restaurant puts Fair Oaks' plentiful output to tasty use, and a Live at the Farmhouse Pub music series runs Thursday nights year-round.

TAKE IT HOME Fuel up for the ride home with chocolate, cheese curds or ice cream, and hit the gift shop for cheese, some of which are produced on site in the Cowfe. 🐮

Marvel at changing leaves and migrating birds, or search for millennia-old specimens.

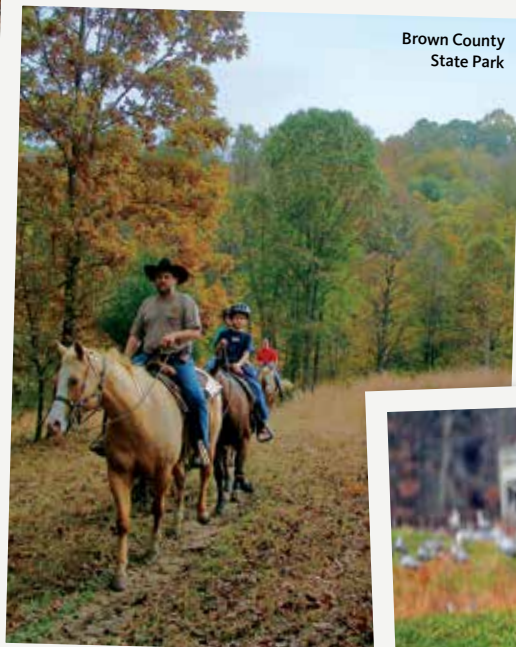

➡ When the Ohio River ebbs in the autumn, visitors start scouring the riverbed for fossils at Falls of the Ohio State Park. These Devonian-age beds—filled with trilobites, brachiopods, coral and more—were formed nearly 400 million years ago. For the best fossil-viewing opportunities, visit between late August and October. 201 W. Riverside Dr., Clarksville, 812.280.9970, in.gov/dnr/parklake/2984.htm (S)

➡ On a sun-soaked fall day, you'd be hard-pressed to find a more beautiful place than 16,000-acre Brown County State Park. Its oak, maple and hickory leaves burst into a captivating rainbow of colors, shades of red, orange and yellow stretching out as far as you can see. Climb the 90-foot-high fire tower for a bird's-eye view. 1405 S.R. 46 W., Nashville, 812.988.6406, in.gov/dnr/parklake/2988.htm (SC)

➡ One of the coolest—and loudest!—natural phenomena happens at Jasper-Pulaski Fish & Wildlife Area, where thousands of sandhill cranes stop on their annual migration south. Come at sunrise to watch the birds socialize before they head out to feed. Watch them return to their roosting area around dusk. Numbers peak in mid-November. 5822 N. NORTH REGION

Cutting-edge cuisine. World-class antiques. Lakes to zip across on boat, and beaches to explore on foot. There are as many ways to enjoy Northern Indiana as the people who flock to the area, renowned for its Amish-country heritage and distinctive cultural treasures. Where else can you whiz down Indiana's only refrigerated toboggan run, feel sand between your toes, wander through a museum dedicated to lovable team mascots, bite into an award-winning burger and run your hand across quilts made the same way they've been sewn for hundreds of years? Do it all in Northern Indiana.

EAST REGION

Craft your own perfume. Encounter animals of all kinds. Discover the area's colorful history with the art of glass-making. Enjoy a picnic next to a waterfall. There's always something new to explore in Eastern Indiana, where history meets modern-day excitement. The famous Antique Alley, with its thousands of vintage finds, lures shoppers from across the Midwest, while themed gardens at Minnetrista beckon nature-lovers. You might wander The Girl of the Limberlost territory, waft down a river, tour art galleries and museums or sit down to a delicious meal featuring ingredients grown just a few miles away. Whatever you're looking for, you'll find it when you head east.

SIGHTSEEING!

EASTERN STARS

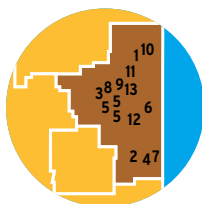

Fascinating history, the great outdoors, luxurious accommodations and tasty lunch, dinner and happy hour options, all in Eastern Indiana.

PLAY

❶ The tropics bloom year-round at Foellinger-Freimann Botanical Conservatory (botanicalconservatory.org) in Fort Wayne, home to more than 500 species of far-flung plant varieties in its indoor gardens. Even more foliage awaits outdoors.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

GOOD TO KNOW
Be sure to check attraction hours and availability before setting out.

❸ Glass shops popped up in East Central Indiana in the 1880s after numerous gas wells were discovered. The Dunkirk Glass Museum (dunkirk.lib.in.us) pays tribute to that industry with displays of thousands of bright, sparkling objects from Indiana and around the world.

STAY

AMAZING! JUST EAST OF MISSISSINewa LAKE, THE SEVEN PILLARS NATURE PRESERVE BOASTS 25-FOOT LIMESTONE FORMATIONS CARVED OUT OVER THE YEARS BY RUSHING WATER.

❺ Anglers love Mississinewa Lake (in.gov/dnr/parklake/2955.htm) in Peru for its top-notch fishing, but it's also a popular destination for camping, hiking and boating.

❼ Garfield, that lovable fat cat with an insatiable appetite for lasagna, is honored with various colorful themed statues throughout Marion, Fairmount, Muncie and other cities on the Garfield Trail (followthefatcat.com).

ornately carved wood and antique furnishings.

⑨ A restored historic boutique hotel in the heart of Wabash, Charley Creek Inn (charleycreekinn.com) offers suite accommodations, fine dining, a sweets shop and a wine and cheese bistro.

⑩ Huntington's stately Purviance House (purviancehouse.com), an Italianate B&B built in 1859, is just across the Little River from the city's shopping and dining district.

SAVOR

⑩ The name—The Hoppy Gnome (hoppygnome.com)—is enough to make you smile, but this Fort Wayne gastropub will delight anyone looking for outside-the-box bar bites. Tacos stuffed with duck confit, paneer and smoked brisket are joined by a Cuban torta, Thai lamb chops and curried salmon.

⑪ Stop in Roanoke's charming Moose & Mollie's Cafe & Gelato (facebook.com/mooseandmolliesroanoke) for lunch—and creamy gelato, of course—before browsing nearby boutiques.

AMAZING! THE HEOROT IS AMONG DRAFT MAGAZINE'S 100 BEST BEER BARS IN AMERICA.

⑫ With hundreds of bottled brews from around the world, the menu at Heorot Pub and Draught House (facebook.com/heorotpub) in Muncie is not for the indecisive.

CENTRAL REGION

*The heart of Indiana provides an unforgettable getaway. World-class museums and performing arts. Nationally acclaimed dining (why hello, Bon Appétit and Food @ Wine!). An always-exciting pro-sports scene. Spend the day exploring one of our quaint small towns, such as Zionsville or Fortville, or an urban hot spot, like Indy's retro-cool Fountain Square, accessible via foot or bike on the world-famous Cultural Trail. Here, big-city excitement mingles with rural charm—and you'll find the best of both when you're at the center of it all.*

SIGHTSEEING!

GRAND CENTRAL

The Central region buzzes with racecars, bees and a world-famous kids' museum, as well as sweet treats, cold drinks and memorable meals.

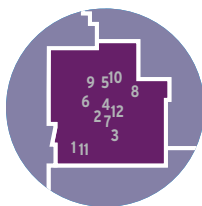

PLAY

❶ At Hunter's Honey Farm (hunts-honeyfarm.com) in Martinsville, various tours let you see the honey barn, view demonstrations, work a live beehive and even fill your own bottle to take home. Sweet!

AMAZING! ON THE SPEEDWAY'S KISS THE BRICKS GROUNDS TOUR, YOU CAN SMOOCH THE FAMOUS FINISH-LINE BRICKS, JUST LIKE RACE WINNERS.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

GOOD TO KNOW

Turn to page 64 for more attractions, dining and places to stay. And be sure to check hours and availability before setting out.

❻ The Marmalade Sky Bed and Breakfast (themarmaladesky.com) in Danville lies just a few blocks from the Hendricks County town's courthouse square, which offers a mix of charming shops and restaurants.

❼ Fortville's historic Ivy House Bed & Breakfast (ivyhousebb.com) provides guests with a small-town setting but a location that's still convenient to Central Indiana's major points of interest.

❼ Attached to a still-operating train depot, the Crowne Plaza Indianapolis Downtown Union Station (crowneplaza.com/ind-downtown) features 13 authentic

Sun King Spirits in Carmel

Indianapolis 500 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway

Pullman cars that have been converted into hotel rooms.

AMAZING! INDIANAPOLIS' UNION STATION OPENED IN 1853, MAKING IT THE U.S.'S FIRST-EVER UNION STATION.

SAVOR

9 Sweet treats displayed under glass domes are the cherry on top at Zionsville's The Lemon Bar (thelemonbaronline.com). Stop in for breakfast, lunch or dinner, or maybe just a boozy milkshake or a cupcake with a hefty dollop of frosting.

10 Indy's Sun King Brewing Company branched out into liquor with Sun King Spirits (sunkingbrewing.com) in Carmel, a two-story distillery that also pours Sun King brews and has four food stalls.

11 Inside a chic, brick-walled dining room, Martinsville's 21 North Eatery & Cellar (21northeateryandcellar.com) serves rotating lunch and dinner specials and a lengthy slate of "giggle water"—aka cocktails.

12 With a James Beard-recognized chef in Jonathan Brooks and a Wine Enthusiast honor for its vino variety, Beholder (beholderindy.com) in Indianapolis attracts foodies looking for fine—but not stuffy—dining with the likes of grilled quail, braised-lamb pasta and Indiana-grown strip steak.

WEST REGION

Here, picturesque parks call to hikers, bikers, picnickers and nature-lovers. Bacon, beer and covered bridges all get their own festivals in Western Indiana, where you can also go art-hopping, watch calves and piglets being born, canoe or kayak down serene waterways flanked by dense woods, brave the biggest corn maze around or howl with wolves. Celebrations of Hoosier heritage offer loads of fun, from apple bobbing to square dancing to classic car and motorcycle shows. You never know what you'll find around the next bend when you go west.

SIGHTSEEING!

WESTWARD BOUND

The ultimate cycling park, close looks at large animals and cozy cabins within the woods—find those and more in Western Indiana.

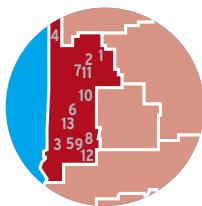

PLAY

❶ Board the Queen of Lake Free-man, aka Madam Carroll (madamcarroll.com), and take a spin around the water in Monticello on a dinner or live entertainment cruise.

❷ Learn about William Henry Harrison's 1811 victory over Tecumseh at the Tippecanoe Battlefield Museum & Park (tippecanoehistory.org), a 96-acre site in Battle Ground.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

GOOD TO KNOW

Turn to page 84 for more attractions, dining and places to stay. And be sure to check hours and availability before setting out.

AMAZING! THE REVIVAL OF KANKAKEE SANDS WAS HELPED ALONG WITH THE ARRIVAL OF 23 BISON FROM NORTH DAKOTA IN 2016.

❹ View bison, birds and wildflowers at 7,000-acre Kankakee Sands (nature.org) in Morocco, which has undergone restoration with the guidance of The Nature Conservancy.

STAY

❻ Walk to Shades State Park when you and your group bed down at Sugar Creek Retreat (sugarcreekretreat.com) in Waveland. Both the log cabin and the farmhouse are surrounded by serene wilderness.

❼ Black Blanket Farms Bed & Breakfast (blackblanketfarms.com) in West Lafayette provides guests with an agrarian experience just minutes from Purdue University.

❽ Stay in the mid of the great outdoors with Cataract Lake Cabins (cataractlakecabins.com) five fully equipped options in Cloverdale, near Upper and Lower Cataract Falls.

❾ Fishing, boating and hiking are just a few activities at Wasatch Lake (wasatchlake.com) in Poland, which offers several cabins for year-round use.

SIGHTSEEING!

SOUTHERN COMFORTS

Amazing architecture, award-winning wine and beer, underground exploration and historic places to stay await in South Central Indiana.

PLAY

❶ Discover Columbus' many architectural highlights on a guided bus or walking tour (columbus.in.us/tour-options) that takes you past prominent buildings and works of art.

❷ One of Travel + Leisure's top 25 U.S. wineries to visit, Bloomington's Oliver Winery (oliverwinery.com) offers looks at its production process Fridays through Sundays. After seeing how the goods are made, sample a handful during a guided tasting.

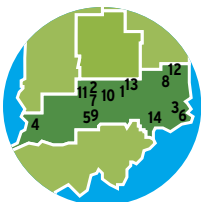

❸ Built by industrialist Thomas Gaff in the mid-1800s, Hillforest (hillforest.org), an Italian Renaissance beauty in Aurora, overlooks the Ohio River and is open for tours, special events and tea time.

❺ See how many blind crayfish you can spot on a boat ride through Bluespring Caverns (bluespringcaverns.com). A year-round temperature of 54 degrees makes this underground Bedford attraction a hot commodity on sweltering days.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

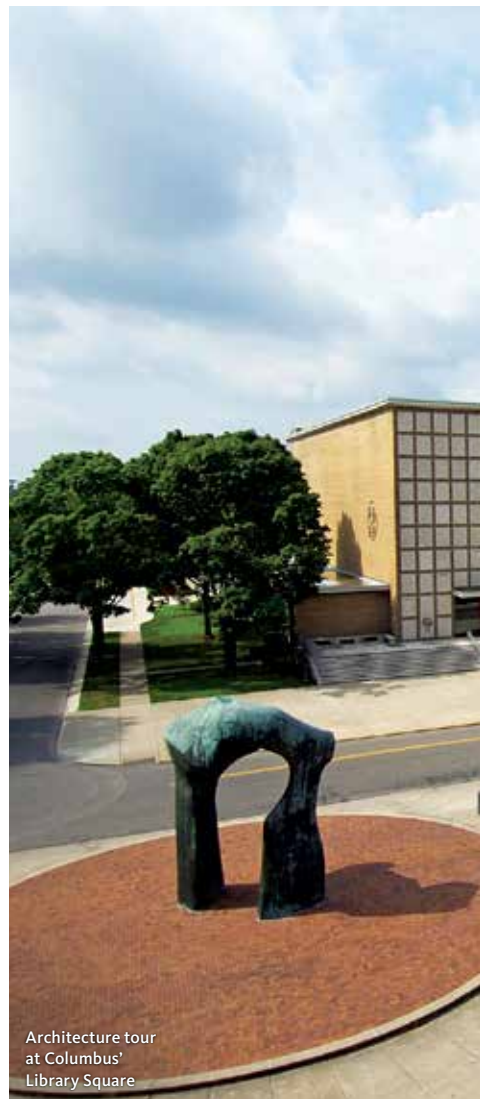

GOOD TO KNOW

SOUTH REGION

Indiana's Southern region is full of surprises, and you'll discover them around every turn. A wise place to start would be the "Eighth Wonder of the World," a nickname bestowed upon the beautifully restored French Lick Resort. Elsewhere, search for fossils that are hundreds of millions of years old. Take an exhilarating ride on one of the most exciting roller coasters in the world. Marvel at the galaxy in a cutting-edge planetarium. Celebrate Christmas all year long, hike one of the longest caves in the country or honor the state's baseball heritage. Try houseboating, go antiquing or soar across a zipline. Find your way south, and find a whole new world of exploring to do.

SIGHTSEEING!

SOUTHERN LOVES

Southern Indiana, your stop for vintage cars and planes, solitude among the trees, interactive cooking demos, fresh seafood and so much more.

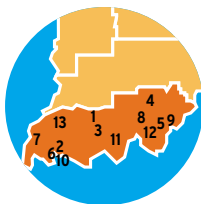

PLAY

❶ After an extensive renovation, the charming 1936 Astra Theatre (astratheater.com) in Jasper is back open, hosting comedians, musicians and movie screenings.

❷ Marvel at classics, exotics, muscle rides, wheels from Hollywood and lots of auto memorabilia at Evansville's Dream Car Museum (dreamcarmuseum.com).

❸ Mountain bike or hike under a canopy of oak and hickory trees at Ferdinand State Forest (in.gov/dnr/forestry/4824.htm), which also offers fishing, swimming and boating in its various lakes.

DESTINATIONS AT A GLANCE

GOOD TO KNOW
Turn to page 117 for more attractions, dining and places to stay. And be sure to check hours and availability before setting out.

AMAZING! WITH WORLD WAR II LOOMING, MANY FUTURE CIVILIAN PILOTS TRAINED ON PIPER'S CUB MODEL.

STAY

❻ You don't have to roll the dice on a place to stay at Tropicana Evansville (tropevansville.com). The casino offers the 243-room Tropicana Evansville Hotel, as well as boutique accommodations in the Le Merigot.

❼ Craftsmanship of the late Victorian era is on full display at New Harmony's A.C. Thomas House Bed & Breakfast (acthomashouse.com), built in 1899. Among your options, the Loft Suite has 14-foot vaulted ceilings.

❽ Fully equipped Blue River Valley Farm (bluerivervalleyfarm.com) in Milltown beckons guests outdoors with a nature trail, the owners' animals (including baby goats!) and fishing in the Blue River.

SAVOR

9 Perch at the rooftop bar and dig into fresh oysters, a catfish po'boy or low country boil with all the fixings at New Albany's Hull & High Water (hullhighwater.com). Wash them down with the "Crabby Mary" cocktail, garnished with skewered seafood.

AMAZING! RIVER KITTY HAS FOUND HOMES FOR MORE THAN 100 CATS SINCE ITS OPENING!

10 Come in for a coffee, leave with a cat. At River Kitty Cat Cafe (riverkittycatcafe.com) in Evansville, guests can cuddle, play and even do yoga with adoptable kitties after finishing their lattes and macarons.

11 The family behind Bristow's Winzerwald Winery (winzerwaldwinery.com) honors its German heritage with wines inspired by that country, as well as fruit and spiced varieties and specialty releases.

12 Enjoy sweet and savory treats at themed events, such as a Hocus Pocus tea, murder mysteries and Storytime Tea with the Grinch, at The Old Capitol Tea Room (facebook.com/theoldcapitoltearoom), a century-old mansion in Corydon.

13 Broadway House Bistro (broadwayhousebistro.com) dishes up sandwiches and salads for lunch and ratatouille and duck breast for dinner within an adorable bungalow in Princeton.
