Terms and Conditions

- Promotion is available through March 15, 2013.
- To be eligible for this promotion, customers must have purchased vSphere Enterprise Plus and have an active Support and Subscription agreement as of August 27th, 2012. New purchases of vSphere Enterprise Plus on or after August 27, 2012 are not eligible for this promotion. Customers must also complete their upgrade transaction with VMware before the expiration of the promotion.
- Promotion is available to all commercial, academic, and government end-user customers who meet the promotion requirements and place an order containing an eligible SKU through a VMware authorized reselling partner or directly with VMware. Please contact VMware or your VMware authorized partner for specific pricing information.
- Customers who purchased a vSphere Enterprise Plus license from an authorized OEM partner should contact their OEM partner for any upgrade offers. If the OEM partner is not currently offering upgrades to vCloud Suite, customers may elect to upgrade directly with a VMware authorized reselling partner; however, no credit will be issued by VMware for any unused support and/or maintenance fees paid by customers directly to the OEM partner. Additionally, upon electing to upgrade to vCloud Suite through VMware, customers who purchased previously via an OEM partner will be required to pay for one (1) year of VMware Production SnS at the current list price.
- Promotion SKUs are not eligible for VMware Volume Purchasing Program (VPP) or VMware Transactional Purchasing Program (TPP) discounts, but are eligible for VPP or TPP points. Prices of eligible SKUs may vary by regions and resellers.
- This promotion cannot be combined with any other promotions or discounts unless specifically identified in the other promotion or discount documentation.
- Prices of eligible SKUs may vary by regions and resellers.
- VMware reserves the right to change or cancel this promotion at any time.
- See www.vmware.com/go/vcloud-suite-promotion for more information.

Additional Terms & Conditions for the upgrade from vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard (CL5-VEPL-STD-UG-PRO, CL5-VEPL-STD-UG-APRO, and CL5-VEPL-STD-UG-FPRO)

- The following terms apply to customers who upgrade from vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard and supersede any conflicting terms above.
 - The upgrade from vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard is available on the VMware Web Store, in addition to VMware authorized reselling partners or directly with VMware.
 - For the upgrade from vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard, the existing Support and Subscription (SnS) contract will persist and no additional SnS fees are required at time of purchase. The new SnS rate will be charged at the next renewal. When the upgrade is selected, the same level of support must be chosen for the upgrade that covered the original vSphere Enterprise Plus license. For example, if the vSphere Enterprise Plus was covered by VMware Basic SnS, then the upgrade to vCloud Suite Standard must also have VMware Basic SnS.
 - ELA customers are only eligible for the free vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard upgrade promotion by contacting VMware to modify their existing ELA. ELA customers cannot upgrade by directly purchasing through the web store or from a VMware reseller.
 - For the upgrade from vSphere Enterprise Plus to vCloud Suite Standard, additional vCloud Suite Standard licenses can be purchased at the vSphere Enterprise Plus price. The additional licenses must be purchased on the same purchase order as the original upgrade.
