John Appleby's Byline Article, "Extreme Makeover: Office Edition", Published by WealthManagement

According to Appleby, "When firms are tackling the larger issue of 'what's next' prior to a merger, upgrades and maintenance of their physical office space often fall to the bottom of the priority list."

In August, WealthManagement published John Appleby's byline article, "Extreme Makeover: Office Edition."

According to Appleby, "When firms are tackling the larger issue of 'what's next' prior to a merger, upgrades and maintenance of their physical office space often fall to the bottom of the priority list."

In the piece, Appleby takes a look at the office makeover as one of the first and most noticeable enhancements that takes place post-merger.
