Additional Resources

In addition, the following websites contain generic resources to support the subjects. Please click on the links below for further information.

The Global Dimension website is a UK hub for global development teaching resources, bringing together lesson plans, activity kits, websites and more, from a range of charities and publishers. The website is free, and you can search by the age group you are teaching, the kind of resource you are looking for, and by key words including 'development', 'democracy' and 'conflict'.

The British Council also have some general resources, including Schools Online - <http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/> The purpose of schools online is to provide resources to support the international dimension, and includes project ideas, resources to support Global citizenship and films for schools, many of which cover the themes of the course units. They also have a set of online CPD courses for teachers on global citizenship and international work <http://connectingclassrooms-learning.britishcouncil.org/>
