

E-book Cheat Sheet

for Kindle!

Amazon Kindle users do not have to download any software, but you will need to set up an account on Amazon.com before borrowing e-books.

After you have checked out an e-book, the title will appear under My Account —> My Checkouts.

The screenshot shows the SAILS Library Network interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links: Home, Search, My Cart, My Account, Help, and Support. Below this, a 'Sign Out' link is visible. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features a section titled 'Additional eBooks. Always Available.' with a 'Download Now' button and a note that titles do not count against checkout limits. Below this is a 'Browse Collection' section with links for Books, Fiction; Books, Nonfiction; Audiobooks, Fiction; Audiobooks, Nonfiction; and Kids | Teens. The right column is titled 'Download' and contains instructions: 'You must have the appropriate digital book software downloaded to your computer or PDA before you download these digital books.' It also provides instructions on how to download the title to your machine. Below the instructions, it lists the following digital book(s) available for download: 'The 50 Best Pasta Recipes: Tasty, Fresh, and Easy to Make!' by Editors of Adams Media. The book is available as a Kindle Book. A 'Get for Kindle' button is present. The checkout details show it was checked out on Feb 07, 2012, and expires on Feb 14, 2012.

When you click the yellow Get Library Book button, Amazon will prompt you to login to your account.

The image shows the Amazon 'Sign In' page. At the top, it says 'Sign In' in orange. Below that, it asks 'What is your e-mail address?' with a text input field. Underneath, it asks 'Do you have an Amazon.com password?' with two radio button options: 'No, I am a new customer.' and 'Yes, I have a password:'. The 'Yes' option is selected. There is a password input field next to it, and a link 'Forgot your password?' below. At the bottom, there is a yellow button that says 'Sign in using our secure server' with a right-pointing arrow.

Amazon will ask you to select the Kindle (or device with Kindle application, such as an iPhone or iPad), then click the Continue button.

The image shows a screen with a green border. At the top, it says 'Amanda, please choose a Kindle device or reading application for delivery of your title:'. Below that, there is a 'Deliver to:' label and a dropdown menu showing 'Amanda's iPhone'. At the bottom, there are two buttons: a grey 'Cancel' button and a yellow 'Continue' button with a right-pointing arrow. Below the buttons, it says 'Need Help? Visit Kindle support' with a link.

If you don't have wireless internet (you use a desktop computer) you will need to connect your device to the computer. If your computer and your device are connected to the same wireless internet network, Amazon will deliver your borrowed title wirelessly.

Thanks, Amanda!

Your public library book has been delivered to Amanda's iPhone.
