

Directory of Useful Links

This handout is designed to offer you links to further information when thinking about the following areas:

- Careers research
- Employers and organisations
- Job hunting & vacancies
- Work experience, internships and volunteering

We recommend you use this directory of links in conjunction with the Graduate Job Searching and Looking for Part-Time Work? Handouts. The principles also apply to finding work experience.

Careers Research in General

- www.prospects.ac.uk the UK's official graduate careers website - a good starting point for all your information requirements including informative contacts & resources sections to speed up your web searches
- <https://targetjobs.co.uk/careers-advice/job-descriptions> - a useful directory of job descriptions to aid your job search
- <https://beta.careerswales.gov.wales/> Independent and impartial careers advice and guidance service for Wales - available in Welsh and English
- <https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/Pages/Home.aspx> - official UK website with numerous job profiles to aid your career research - also available in an additional eight languages

Employers and Organisations

Doing some background research into employers, employment sectors and labour market news can pay dividends when completing your applications and at interview:
