question.

What

if

I

were

big

Scary

ape,

would

you

still

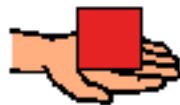

love

me?

 If  you  were  a  big  scary  ape,  I  would make  you  a  banana  cake  and  say  I  love
 you.

The boy had another question.

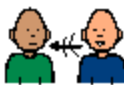

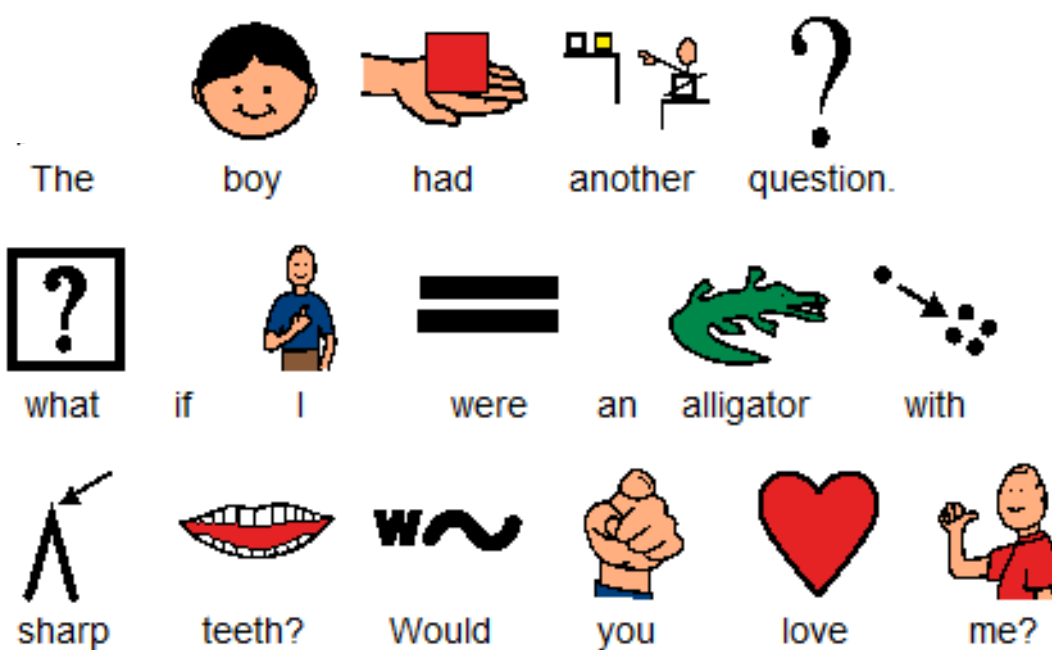

What if I were a smelly skunk?

Would you still love me.?

 =  a  smelly  skunk,  I  would put  you  in the  tub and  tell  you I  love  you.

This book is adapted from the original text, I Love You Stinky Face, by Lisa McCourt.

If  you  were  an alligator,  I  would  buy  you a  bigger  toothbrush and  say  I  love  you.

 If  you  were  a  meat  eating  dinosaur,  I  would  make you  a  mountain  of hamburgers  to  eat  and  say  I love  you.

 The boy had another question.

  =
 What if I were a swamp creature?

 Would you still love me?

 If you were a swamp creature, I would live by the swamp

 and say I love you.

 The boy had another question.

 what if I were a green alien from mars and I ate bugs?

If you were a green alien, I would make you a sandwich with spiders and ants and say I love you.

The

boy

had

another

question.

What

if

I

were

a

one

eye

monster?

Would

you

still

love

me?

If you were a one eye monster, I would look in your one eye and say I love you.
 I would sing to you, until your one eye closed and you fell asleep.

The boy said, I love you mommy.

The mom said, and I love you!
