

Spirit in this work of transformation and consider how some of these practices—such as study, prayer, liturgy, and service—fit particularly well within the ministry context of St. Matthias Episcopal Church.