Authorization Requirements.

Exceptions

Members who don't have a radiology area listed on their member ID card may use a participating radiology provider within the service area.

Radiology services rendered during an in-patient stay or in the emergency room won't be subject to this policy.

A PCP or specialist may order radiological studies by using either a prescription or requisition, with the exception of magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) studies, cardio-diagnostic studies, vascular studies, interventional radiology studies and radiation oncology.

All pre-operative, post-operative and routine outpatient radiology should be performed by the preferred radiology vendor, except in geographic exception areas. This information is listed as RAD=PAR on the member's ID card.

Physicians may bill for "STAT" radiology services only if such services are necessary for immediate treatment of the patient, using their M.D.IPA or OCI benefits. For these services, you must use the modifier "ST" or "ET" in the appropriate space provided on the claim form.

Radiology Services for Members with M.D.IPA Preferred or Optimum Choice Preferred Benefits

Members may use preferred radiology vendors or any other participating facility for radiology services. The member's out-of-pocket costs may be lower if you refer them to a preferred radiology vendor.
